THE LAW RELATING TO COMMERCIAL LETTERS OF CREDIT

By A. G. Davis, LL.D.(Lond.), Solicitor of the Supreme Court, Professor of Law at Auckland University College, New Zealand. The Second Edition of this explicit guide to the law relating to commercial letters of credit has been largely rearranged and brought up to date to include recent decisions reached in the British and American courts. 30s. net.

THE LAW OF AGENCY

By Raphael Powell, M.A., B.C.L.(Oxon.), of the Middle Temple, Barrister-at-Law, Reader in Law in the University of London. In preparing this very comprehensive study, full reference has been made to the work in recent years of American and Canadian writers, and especially to the 'American Restatement of the Law of Agency,' to which frequent reference has lately been made in English courts. 40s. net.

LAW OF BANKING

By Lord Chorley, M.A., Barrister-at-Law. A reliable textbook, primarily written for students of banking, but of considerable value to those students of law who require an introductory legal textbook on the subject. 25s. net.

LEADING CASES IN THE LAW OF BANKING

By Lord Chorley, M.A., Barrister-at-Law, and P. E. Smart, LL.B. Gives a summary of the facts of each case, followed by the decision, and, where appropriate, a quotation from the judgment with other useful material. The book is arranged under subject-headings which follow the general plan of Lord Chorley's Law of Banking. 30s. net.

PRINCIPLES OF ADMINISTRATIVE LAW

By J. A. G. Griffith, LL.M., Lecturer in Administrative Law in the London University, of the Inner Temple, Barrister-at-Law; and H. Street, LL.M., PH.D., Professor of Law, Nottingham University, Solicitor of the Supreme Court. 30s. net.

'. . . to the authors must go our real gratitude and admiration . . . has at once established itself as the authoritative work on the subject.'
