NOTICE TO CONTRIBUTORS

All editorial communications should be addressed to the Secretary, Royal Asiatic Society, 56 Queen Anne Street, London W1M 9LA, in the first instance.

Contributions submitted for publication in the Society's Journal should be typed in double spacing on paper of A4 size, leaving a margin of at least 30 mm. at the left-hand side. Sheets should be numbered consecutively at the top right-hand corner. Notes, numbered consecutively through the article, should be typed on a separate sheet or sheets at the end and not at the foot of each page. Contributors are reminded that the Journal has special need of a number of shorter articles for each issue, not exceeding 2000 words in length. Such contributions can often be printed more promptly than longer works.

Authors are urged to study the conventions employed in recent issues of the Journal, particularly the style of citation of books and periodical articles, and the bibliographical information inserted at the head of reviews. Contributions should be submitted in a form ready for the printer; later corrections, whether involving over-running or not, can be accepted only at the Editor's discretion and will incur a charge to the author. Authors will receive page proofs; revises will not normally be sent. Note should also be taken of the fact that postal losses have been occurring in the central London districts during recent months. If typescripts submitted are not acknowledged within a month of dispatch, suitable allowance being made for overseas mails, the Secretary or Editor should be contacted, preferably (when convenient) by telephone.

Authors of articles will be supplied with 25 free copies of offprints. Additional copies can be obtained on request at moderate charges; authors are asked to notify the Editor of their requirements when returning proofs.

Memories of Loyang

Yan Hsüan-chih and the Lost Capital (493–534)

W.J.F. Jenner

In its forty-one years as the capital of north China from 493 to 534, the city of Loyang was created by imperial command on a deserted site, grew until it contained 1,367 Buddhist monasteries and nunneries and at least 500,000 inhabitants, and was compulsorily abandoned at three days' notice. This is a study of the origins, history, functions, and nature of this remarkable city. £25

Letters from India

Victor Jacquemont

Victor Jacquemont, a French aristocrat and scholar, went to India to describe and classify the local flora. When not thus occupied he wrote long letters to his family and friends. His Correspondence avec sa famille et ses amis, published in France in 1833 and in an English translation in 1834, enjoyed immediate success for the liveliness of his vignettes of Indian life, the high quality of the prose, and the freshness of approach. Illustrated two volumes £15.75
