

The Formation of the Christian Bible

Hans von Campenhausen

trans. by J. A. Baker

An original and important look at the development of the Christian for students of the Bible, early Christianity, and church history.

"The book is not only at the highest level of scholarship, but it is superbly well done with a very lively text.... There is no doubt in my mind that this is one of the major contributions that has been made to the study of the field of New Testament and ancient church history in this century."

—Helmut Koester

$10.95

Other recent books about the Bible:

Torah and Canon, James A. Sanders. An original look at the Torah—how it developed and how it relates to the whole canon.
$2.95 paper

Ethos and Ethics in the Old Testament, Johannes Hempel. Israel's religion analyzed from the point of view of cultural customs and practices.

The New Testament as the Church's Book, Willi Marxsen. The relationship between biblical faith and biblical criticism. $3.95 paper

Fortress Press

2900 Queen Lane
Philadelphia,
Pennsylvania 19129

IN HIS IMAGE, BUT . . .
Racism in Southern Religion, 1780-1910

H. Shelton Smith

JOHN HOPE
FRANKLIN

Professor of American History
University of Chicago

"I was greatly instructed by Professor Smith's engrossing book which I read with great interest and admiration. It is rather strange that no one heretofore has examined so exhaustively the role Southern churches played in the development of racism in that region. So far as I know, this is the first full-length treatment of the subject. It is a sad, depressing story, one that ought to be told, and Professor Smith has told it well."

THE CHRISTIAN
CENTURY

"A distinguished historian, Prof. Smith has spent his early postretirement years putting together what will certainly come to be regarded as the best book on the religious base of southern whites' views of blacks. Not self-consciously revisionist, the author simply sets out to tell a story, which turns out to be a sad story of the betrayal of religious beliefs in the face of social prejudices. Though he never lets the non-south in America 'off the hook,' he concentrates on the particular forms racism took in Dixie. Based on a fresh reading of often-overlooked sources."

LIBRARY
JOURNAL

"The first major account examining the role of Southern churches in the development of racism in America. . . This scholarly study, highly recommended for academic libraries, is an important contribution to understanding the complications of racism."

August 1972

$8.50

DUKE UNIVERSITY PRESS
6697 College Station
Durham, North Carolina 27708

TOUCHSTONE

Paperbacks on Religion

A HISTORY OF CHRISTIAN THOUGHT

From Its Judaic and Hellenistic Origins to Existentialism

by Paul Tillich. Edited by Carl E. Braaten. "A history of Christian theology as viewed by a great systematic thinker . . . a valuable introduction to the theological tradition and a major contribution to and clarification of Tillich's systematic theology."

— Guy B. Hammond, Journal of the American Academy of Religion. Index. $4.95

A HISTORICAL INTRODUCTION TO THE NEW TESTAMENT

by Robert M. Grant. "A masterpiece of comprehensiveness and condensation . . . an introduction to the historical, literary, and theological study of the New Testament in slightly more than four hundred pages." — Prof. Edward P. Blair, Garrett Theological Seminary. With a new preface and comprehensive 20-page bibliography. Index. $4.95

THE BIBLE DESIGNED TO BE READ AS LIVING LITERATURE

ed. by Ernest Sutherland Bates. The first paperbound edition of the Bates Bible, long used in classes throughout the country. While scrupulously faithful to the King James Version, it prints prose as prose, verse as verse, drama as drama, letters as letters. "From its first page the rhythmic beauty of its English prose impresses itself gratefully, and with a new emphasis, upon the ear."
— New York Times $3.95

PROTESTANT THOUGHT

From Rousseau to Ritschl

by Karl Barth. Trans. by Brian Cozens. "An impressive book. The person who wants to expose himself to such men as Rousseau, Lessing, Herder and Kant . . . will find digests of their main works and lively appraisals of their significance." — Robert McAfee Brown. Index. $2.95

ARMED NEUTRALITY AND AN OPEN LETTER

by Søren Kierkegaard. Ed. & trans. with an intro. by Howard V. and Edna H. Kong. Two of Kierkegaard's most penetrating works on Christianity and the church. The volume includes an interpretive biographical essay and a commentary by the Danish scholar Gregor Malantschuk, in addition to notes and selections from Kierkegaard's personal journals. Index. $1.95

SIMON AND SCHUSTER

Witch Hunting in Southwestern Germany 1562-1684

The Social and Intellectual Foundations

H. C. Erik Midelfort. One of the most detailed regional studies of witch hunting ever made, this book concerns an area that in a period of 120 years saw some 480 trials and some 3,200 executions. In bringing together diverse materials on the economic, political, and cultural history of southwestern Germany, as well as insights from anthropology and psychology, the author breaks with the long-established view that witchcraft doctrines were monolithic, the trials motivated by greed and envy, and the hunts brought to an end by outside forces. Illus. $11.50

Stanford University Press

3rd Edition, Newly Revised and Updated

THE STANDARD WORK on the rise, development, and use of credal formularies in the creative centuries of the Church's history is now brought completely up to date. Two valuable features of the new edition are the emphasis it lays on the liturgical setting of ancient creeds and the light it sheds on their theology as it was understood by those who framed it.

McKAY

Early Christian Creeds

By DR. J. N. D. KELLY

At your bookstore. $17.50

THREE ESSAYS

by Albrecht Ritschl

*Translated and with an introduction
by Philip Hefner*

This book presents Albrecht Ritschl in three of his shorter writings, two for the first time in English, to aid in the current reevaluation of this great thinker. In a critical introduction, Philip Hefner places Ritschl in his own time and relates him to ours. A survey of the latest studies on Ritschl also helps to make this major theological figure accessible to students and teachers today. Any professor dealing with the man or his era will want to include this book as required or collateral reading. $10.95

THE LIFE OF JESUS CRITICALLY EXAMINED

by David Friedrich Strauss

Edited and with an introduction by Peter C. Hodgson

The latest addition to the Lives of Jesus Series makes available another pivotal work in the quest for the historical Jesus. This is the definitive English edition of the famous German text, which represented a watershed in the development of a critical method for studying the Gospels. The beginnings of form criticism and redaction criticism are here in Strauss, and those interested in the roots of modern theology will find a wealth of material in this book. The editor has provided an excellent introduction, extensive annotations, and an up-to-date bibliography. $12.00 paper

Available at all bookstores

FORTRESS PRESS

2900 Queen Lane Philadelphia, Pa. 19129

CHURCH HISTORY INDEX

now available

The American Society of Church History announces the publication of a cumulative Index to volumes 31 through 39 (1962-1970) of Church History. The new Index supplements an earlier one compiled by Mr. Holley M. Shepherd which covered series I and II of the Society's Papers and the first thirty volumes of Church History from 1932 through 1961.

Compiled by Kent Druyvesteyn, former assistant to the editors of Church History, the new publication is a comprehensive guide to three regular features of the journal: articles, book reviews, and dissertation abstracts.

The new Index contains 108 pages and is sized and bound to match the quarterly issues of the journal. It is now available at $2.50 per copy. Orders should be addressed to:

Mr. Willam B. Miller, Treasurer
American Society of Church History
305 E. Country Club Lane
Wallingford, PA. 19086

Also still available from Mr. Miller at $2.00 per copy is the earlier Index of the journal for volumes 1-30.