Collected Works of Abraham Lincoln Supplement, 1832-1835

Edited by Roy P. Basler
approx. 352 pages.
$15.00

Roy P. Basler, outstanding Lincoln scholar, documents and annotates some five hundred additional items which further reveal personal aspects of Lincoln's life as well as Lincoln the tactician and politician.

The Memoirs of Henry Heth

by James L. Morrison, Jr.
lxxix, 303 pages. April.
$13.95

Henry Heth, Virginia aristocrat and West Point Graduate, served as a commissioned officer in both the Federal and Confederate forces. His memoirs include rare glimpses of most of the men who played key roles in the Civil War era.

The American Radical Press, 1880-1960

Edited by Joseph Conlin
2 volumes. May.
$29.95

These significant essays provide the history of the "Old Left" as seen through its publications. Meticulously indexed and cross-referenced, this collection will serve as a permanent work of reference to eighty years of radical activity in the United States.

Progress and Pragmatism: James, Dewey, Beard, and the American Idea of Progress

by David W. Marcell
xiv, 402 pages.
$13.95

Through this examination of the work of three of the twentieth century's most influential thinkers—William James, John Dewey, and Charles Beard, the author develops both a new perspective from which to examine pragmatism and a new interpretation of the modern progressive faith.

Henry B. Fuller of Chicago: The Ordeal of a Genteel Realist in Ungenteel America

by Bernard Bowron
approx. 320 pages.
$12.50

This biography of Henry Blake Fuller is poignant, even tragic, in its revelations of the trials and tensions of a uniquely creative artist in an uncongenial place during abrasive times.

American Images

Blending literary analysis and cultural history, William Stott examines America's typical art form, the documentary. Ranging from political propaganda to Let Us Now Praise Famous Men, "William Stott has got hold of a real subject and studied it in breadth and some depth... The book is going to be an essential one."

— Malcolm Cowley

"William Stott has performed an invaluable service. We read it with fascination as though we were examining documents out of a buried civilization excavated after long neglect." — Marquis Childs

"The excellence of Stott's book will be recognized immediately." — Daniel Aaron

DOCUMENTARY EXPRESSION AND THIRTIES AMERICA by William Stott

ROBERT JAMES MADDOX

The New Left and the Origins of The Cold War

"The liberties taken with historical evidence in much of recent literature about the origins of the Cold War are quite shocking; and Mr. Maddox has performed a needed service in bringing them to public attention. His examples are fairly chosen, and he has not exaggerated in his condemnation of them."—George F. Kennan

1973                      200 pages                      0 691 05654 4                      Cloth £4.00
Spring 1974                      0 691 01069 2                      Paper £1.15

ROBERT A. PACKENHAM

Liberal America & The Third World

Political Development Ideas in Foreign Aid & Social Science

Robert A. Packenham accounts for how the objectives and theories of U.S. aid officials and social scientists have remained the same in spite of negative results and the seeming inappropriateness of their ideas in the Third World context, and offers suggestions for future policy.

1973                      376 pages                      0 691 07549 2                      £7.90

JULIAN P. BOYD, Editor

The Papers of Thomas Jefferson

Volume 19: 24 January - 10 March 1791

BRITISH ASSOCIATION FOR AMERICAN STUDIES

This Association was founded in 1955 to promote the study of the United States within the United Kingdom. It welcomes applications for membership from people interested in the history, society, government and politics, economics, geography, literature and thought of the United States. It publishes a Newsletter twice yearly, holds an Annual Conference, and provides other services for its members from time to time. Enquiries concerning current subscription rates and applications for membership should be addressed to the Secretary, Dr Charlotte Erickson, London School of Economics, Houghton Street, Aldwych, London, WC2A 2AE.

NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

1. All contributions and editorial correspondence should be sent to: The Editor, Journal of American Studies, Department of American Studies, The University, Manchester M13 9PL, England.
2. Articles should generally contain about 5000 words. Longer or shorter articles, or articles in two or more parts, may be accepted by arrangement with the Editor.
3. Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, or is not being considered for publication elsewhere.
4. Contributions should be clearly typed in double spacing, preferably on A4 paper, with a wide left-hand margin. Diagrams and maps may be included by arrangement with the Editor.
5. Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered in one sequence throughout the article, and should preferably be typed in double spacing at the end of the article.
6. Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Notes intended for the Editor or printer should be on a separate sheet.
8. First proofs may be read and corrected by contributors provided that they can give the Editor an address through which they can be reached without delay and can guarantee to return the corrected proofs to the Editor, by airmail where necessary, within ten days of receiving them.
9. Correction should be kept to an absolute minimum. It should be confined to errors of the typist or printer unless the Editor authorizes otherwise.
10. Contributors of articles and review articles receive 25 free separates. Extra copies may be ordered according to the scale of charges.
11. Contributors need not be members of the British Association for American Studies. Unsolicited typescripts can only be returned to overseas contributors who send International Reply Coupons (not postage stamps).
12. Contributors of accepted articles will be asked to assign their copyrights, on certain conditions, to Cambridge University Press, to help protect their material, particularly in the U.S.A.
