NOTES FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Scope: The Journal aims to publish papers in the full range of the field which the Roman Society was established to promote, that is 'the study of the history, archaeology, literature and art of Italy and the Roman Empire, from the earliest times down to about A.D. 700'. Although the emphasis of the Journal has been on historical themes, we would welcome more submissions on literary, archaeological and art historical topics, including those on issues of cultural and intellectual history that cut across these categories. Papers primarily concerned with the archaeology of Roman Britain should be sent in the first place to Britannia; those concerned with the archaeology of the Roman Empire at large are equally welcomed by this Journal.

Style: The Journal seeks to publish papers that make a fresh and significant contribution to the understanding of the Roman world, and have the potential to stimulate further discussion. They should be carefully thought through and clearly argued; this does not necessarily involve a heavy use of footnotes, but does involve clear statement of the argument and of its broader significance, and adequate signposting to the reader of the steps in the argument. They should so far as possible be fully accessible to the non-specialist reader, and extended citations in ancient languages should always be translated.

Editorial procedure: The Journal is run by an Editorial Committee, the members of which are listed with the officers of the Society. Submissions are circulated at the Editor's discretion to members of the Committee and, where appropriate, to other specialist readers. This process takes several months. Detailed comments are normally sent only to authors of submissions which have been accepted, or which are thought suitable for submission. Authors are frequently invited to revise submissions in the light of such comments.

Deadlines: The Journal is scheduled to appear in November each year. Submissions arriving later than the end of January of any year may well be too late for acceptance for the current year's Journal; those intending to make late submissions are welcome to write to the Editor in advance. The optimum time for submission is between April and December of any given year for appearance in the following year's issue. Final versions after revision must be in the Editor's hands by the end of March.

Style guidelines: Detailed guidelines on matters of presentation are available from the Editor, but recent issues of the Journal should be treated as a general guide.

Discs: Contributions on discs are welcome but a clean print-out must also be supplied. Discs in Wordperfect or Word for Windows are preferred but other standard languages are also acceptable.

Article submissions and all general enquiries should be addressed to the Editor, Dr S. R. F. Price, Lady Margaret Hall, Oxford OX2 6QA, UK.

Correspondence relating to reviews should be addressed to the Review Editor, Dr M. Goodman, at the Society's address.

Books for review should be sent to the Librarian, Hellenic and Roman Societies, 31-34 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0PP.
