Manuscripts and correspondence about them should be sent to the editors. All manuscript submissions must conform to the requirements spelled out in the Style Guide that appears in the African Studies Review, volume 43 number 2 (September 2000), pp. 203–214. These requirements include, but are not limited to, the following features:

- Submit four copies, typed double-spaced, in a 12 point—or 10 characters per inch—font size.
- The text should not be longer than 25 pages
- Maps, tables, charts and other illustrations must be camera-ready.
- Citations within the text follow the author-date standard described in chapter 16 of the 14th edition of A Manual of Style (University of Chicago Press, 1993).
- Complete bibliographic references to the citations should be provided at the end of the essay in a section entitled “References.”
- “Notes” should follow the References.
- Manuscripts will be sent to external peer reviewers; include a removable cover page giving essay title, author name and mailing address, fax number and e-mail address, if available; title should be repeated on the first page of text. Avoid any self-identification as author throughout the essay, so that peer reviewers will not be able to determine your identity.
- Include an abstract of not more than 100 words and a bio-sketch of the author of not more than 100 words.
- Include a signed statement that the essay has not been published and is not currently under consideration by other journals. The ASR will only consider unpublished manuscripts.
