Membership and Subscription

The Society's Byelaws set out the membership requirements as follows:

1. Anyone wishing to become a Fellow must be nominated by a Fellow of the Society and a seconder, each acting on personal knowledge that the candidate is likely to be a suitable and useful Fellow. The nominating Fellow and the seconder shall address the Secretary in writing and give the candidate's name, status, occupation and address.
2. A candidate for Fellowship may, instead of being nominated by a Fellow of the Society, address an application in writing to the Secretary giving the required information above and supported by a letter of recommendation from his head of department or supervisor or other responsible person who need not be a Fellow of the Society.
3. It shall be within the power of the Council, on being satisfied as to the credentials of any particular candidate in exceptional circumstances, to dispense with these conditions.
4. The annual subscription is:

	£	p
Fellows residing in the British Isles	70.00
If paying by direct debit	60.00
Fellows residing abroad	45.00
If paying by direct debit	40.00
Fellows residing in South or Central Asia	32.00
If paying by direct debit	30.00
Student Fellows	25.00
If paying by direct debit	20.00
Affiliated Fellows residing at the same address, not receiving separate notices or the Journal	25.00
5. The first payment of subscription is due on election, but if a candidate is elected in November or December of any year, the first annual subscription shall cover the year beginning 1st January next after his election.
6. Annual subscriptions shall be due on the first day of January of each year.

From the Great Wall to the New World

China and Latin America in the 21st Century

Edited by: Julia C. Strauss, School of Oriental and African Studies, University of London, UK and Ariel C. Armony, Center for Latin American Studies, University of Miami, US

This volume considers the role of Latin America within China, as well as China's more obvious impact on Latin America. With its primary source material from Mexico, Peru, Colombia, Brazil and China, this volume offers an early contribution to the emerging body of scholarship on China and Latin America.

- Engages with notions of “going out” and “landing” as metaphors of new interactions with China and Latin America
- Considers the role of Latin America within China as well as China's more obvious impact on Latin America
- Published as part of The China Quarterly book series.

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy

A Historical Journal

Executive Editor

Roshdi Rashed, CNRS, Paris, France & University of Tokyo, Japan

Managing Editor

Ahmed Hasnaoui, CNRS, Paris, France

Arabic Sciences and Philosophy (ASP) is an international journal devoted to the Arabic sciences, mathematics and philosophy in the world of Islam between the eighth and eighteenth centuries, in a cross-cultural context. In 2009, the journal extended its scope to include important papers on scientific modernization from the nineteenth century in the Islamic world. Together with original studies on the history of all these fields, ASP also offers work on the inter-relations between Arabic and Greek, Indian, Chinese, Latin, Byzantine, Syriac and Hebrew sciences and philosophy. Casting new light on the growth of these disciplines, as well as on the social and ideological context in which this growth took place, ASP is essential reading for those interested in these areas.
