Return of the Dragon

Rising China and Regional Security

DENNY ROY

“A thoughtful, insightful, and current study of China’s security environment, policies, and activities. The volume covers a lot of ground in an informative manner for both uninitiated and well-versed readers. Roy anticipates China becoming more assertive as its power increases, and his study helps to understand why this may be the case.”

International Journal of Asian Studies

Published in association with the Institute for Advanced
Studies on Asia, University of Tokyo

Editor-in-Chief

Takeshi Hamashita, Ryukoku University, Kyoto, Japan

Managing Editors

Robert Chard, University of Tokyo, Japan

Akinobu Kuroda, University of Tokyo, Japan

The International Journal of Asian Studies (IJAS) is an interdisciplinary, English-language forum for research in the social sciences and humanities. IJAS examines Asia on a regional basis, emphasising patterns and tendencies that go beyond the borders of individual countries. While the journal covers all regions of Asia, the primary focus is on eastern Asia, that is, Korea, China, Taiwan, Vietnam and Japan. As well as encouraging contributions from western scholars, IJAS focuses attention on the work of Asian scholars, in order to encourage multi-directional communication across the international Asian studies community. IJAS includes both themed and general issues.

Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies

Published for the School of Oriental and African Studies

Editors

Ulrich Pagel, School of Oriental and African Studies, UK

Konrad Hirschler, School of Oriental and African Studies, UK

The Bulletin of the School of Oriental and African Studies (BSOAS) is an international journal publishing research and reviews in the arts, humanities, law and languages relating to Africa and Asia. BSOAS is distinguished by the quality of its scholarship and the range of its coverage. BSOAS welcomes submissions on the history, religions, languages, literatures, laws, artistic cultures, and related fields pertaining to the societies and countries of Asia and Africa. Authors are encouraged to write in such a way that they be understood by interested non-specialists. As well as research articles, BSOAS publishes short notes and communications, obituaries of significant scholars, and review articles that situate important new publications in their wider scholarly context. BSOAS also has a comprehensive section where new publications are reviewed or, when appropriate, more briefly noted.

Japanese Journal of Political Science

Executive Editor

Takashi Inoguchi, University of Niigata Prefecture, Japan

The Japanese Journal of Political Science is a broadly based journal aiming to cover developments across a wide range of countries and specialisms. Its scope is wide-ranging both in terms of subject matter and method. The journal features articles in all fields of political science, especially where these have a conceptual thrust including political theory, comparative politics, political behaviour, political institutions, public policy, and international relations. At the same time, the journal seeks to attract the best comparative articles featuring both the domestic and international politics of Japan and East Asia. Each issue contains full length research articles, review articles and book reviews.

Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

Instructions for Contributors

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from scholars, including postgraduate students, on all aspects of contemporary China, including Taiwan, Hong Kong, Macau and Tibet. Submissions in the fields of religion, media, literature, or on China prior to 1978, will be considered if they engage with issues of wider significance in contemporary China.

The China Quarterly will consider two main types of submissions: regular articles (up to 9,000 words, including footnotes): in-depth and theoretical pieces which should present original research in combination with analytical argument; Research reports (up to 4,000 words, including footnotes): shorter pieces based on primary research and empirical evidence. We will not consider manuscripts that are under consideration elsewhere, or that have been published in any form.

Manuscripts should be submitted to chinaq@soas.ac.uk. Please make sure you include your full contact details and send an anonymised copy of the article as well as a master copy (preferably as a Word document). An abstract of 100–150 words, some keywords and a bibliography should also be provided. All submissions should conform to the styling of The China Quarterly.

Style

Romanization and Chinese characters

Use pinyin without tone/diacritical marks, except for Chiang Kai-shek, Sun Yat-sen, Taipei, Kuomintang, and names of people living outside mainland China. Give Chinese characters on the first occurrence of each Romanization.

Chinese characters are incorporated into article texts (ie. English (pinyin, characters)) so authors must provide Chinese characters for all Chinese used in the main text (not footnotes) on first appearance, including pinyin phrases, people's names and geographical locations.

Numbers

One to ten spelled out, 11 or more in figures; per cent in text, but % in footnotes. Dates: 2 March 1993. Page references: 324–26 but 324–336.

References in footnotes

Books, chapters and articles should be shortened to the author-date-page format as follows:

Smith 2010, 15.

Smith and Wang 2011, 55–57.

Bibliography

All bibliographical references should be included at the end of the article in alphabetical order. Examples:

O'Brien, Kevin, and Lianjiang Li. 2006. Rightful Resistance in the Chinese Countryside. New York: Cambridge University Press.

Chen, Peiai. 2008. Zhongwai guanggao shi (A History of Advertising in China and Beyond). Beijing: Zhongguo yujia chubanshe.

Perry, Elizabeth, J. 2011. "From mass campaigns to managed campaigns: 'constructing a new socialist countryside'." In Sebastian Heilmann and Elizabeth J. Perry (eds.), Mao's Invisible Hand: The Political Foundations of Adaptive Governance in China. Cambridge, MA: Harvard University Press, 30–61.

Kong, Baohua. 2011. "Gongmin canyu he gongmin yishi" (Civic participation and civic consciousness). In Zhang Miaoqing et al. (eds.), Aomen tequ xinxiang: shi nian fazhan yu bianhua (The New Face of Macao SAR: Ten Years of Development and Changes). Hong Kong: Zhongwen daxue Xianggang Yatai yanjiusuo, 339–362.

Jung, Chulho, Kerry Krutilla and Roy Boyd. 1996. "Incentives for advanced pollution abatement technology at the industry level: an evaluation of policy alternatives." Journal of Environmental Economics and Management 30 (1), 95–111.

Liu, Weikeng. 2006. "Lingnan shezhi zuizao de liu xian zhiyi – Sihui" (Sihui: one of the six counties set up the earliest in Lingnan's history). Lingnan wenshi 3, 12–14.

Copyright

It is a condition of publication in the Journal that authors assign copyright to the School of Oriental and African Studies. This ensures that requests from third parties to reproduce articles are handled efficiently and consistently and will also allow the article to be as widely disseminated as possible. In assigning copyright, authors may use their own material in other publications provided that the Journal is acknowledged as the original place of publication, and Cambridge University Press is notified in writing and in advance.
