To honour the 70th anniversary of the birth of Judge Manfred Lachs, the Institute of State and Law of the Polish Academy of Sciences has compiled a collection of essays by experts of the highest order from a wide range of countries.

The contributors have dealt with issues to which Lachs has devoted special attention in both his practical and theoretical work. The essays are grouped in the following way: Theory of International Law; International Court of Justice and Peaceful Settlement of Disputes; International Organizations; Law of the Sea and Outer Space; Varia.

Some of the essays are in French.
