Editorial Policy

Central European History publishes articles, review articles, book reviews, and conference reports dealing with the history of German-speaking Central Europe. The journal solicits manuscripts using all approaches to history and dealing with all historical periods. Because space is limited, articles which have been or soon will be published elsewhere are not accepted. Manuscripts submitted to CEH should not be under consideration by another journal pending decision of the editor on publication. If it is learned that an article is under submission to another journal while being considered at CEH, consideration will cease immediately. Unsolicited book reviews are not accepted.

The editors prefer that manuscripts be submitted in electronic form as e-mail attachments, preferably in Microsoft Word 2003 or later or WordPerfect 12.0 or later; Adobe Acrobat pdf files will also be reviewed. Manuscripts may, however, be submitted in two printed copies, accompanied by a diskette or compact disc with the article in Word or WordPerfect. The entire text, including footnotes and headings, of all manuscripts submitted for publication must be prepared in double-spaced typescript, unjustified on the right-hand margin, with generous margins to allow for copyediting. Notes must be numbered consecutively and placed in a separate section as end-notes at the end of the manuscript text.

Further guidelines for the preparation of manuscripts for publication in Central European History will be sent upon acceptance of materials by the editor. All materials will be edited to conform with The Chicago Manual of Style in matters regarding punctuation, capitalization, and format. The final decision on style remains with the editor.
