BUSINESS in the USSR, published first and foremost for the Soviet market, enables Russian decision-makers, influential people and the new entrepreneurs to follow the efforts being made to modernize and liberalize the Soviet Union's economic structure. BUSINESS in the USSR also offers Western businessmen a precious and unique source of information. It provides an exceptional medium for communicating details concerning their companies, products and services. BUSINESS in the USSR is available in two editions with identical contents: 100,000 copies in Russian and 40,000 copies in English for the international edition. Written by a Soviet editorial team, well-connected in top economic and social circles. BUSINESS in the USSR is independent, objective and thorough.

Memoirs of a Revolutionist

Vera Figner
Introduction by Richard Stites

In this classic memoir, Figner recounts her journey from aristocrat to revolutionary and terrorist in nineteenthcentury Russia, candidly relating the experiences that shaped her ideas and led to her involvement in the assassination of Alexander II. As she reflects on her own lifelong commitment to improving the lives of ordinary Russians, she reveals much about the concept, structure, and leadership behind the radical movement. The introduction by Richard Stites provides background for understanding a courageous woman's role in the struggle for political change.

The Great Reforms

Autocracy, Bureaucracy, and the Politics of Change in Imperial Russia

W. Bruce Lincoln

A synthesis based on archival materials and the latest monographic literature to appear in the Soviet Union and the West, Lincoln's book examines the origins and the significance of the Great Reforms and evaluates their results in the context of Russia's experience between the Crimean War and the Revolution of 1905. This invaluable study explains why the legislation assumed the shape that it did and estimates what the Great Reforms ultimately accomplished.

The Finest in Russian Literature

CRIME AND PUNISHMENT Fyodor Dostoyevsky

New Translation by David McDuff

The first new translation of Crime and Punishment in 40 years, David McDuff's interpretation is the only one in English to contain scholarly notes that explain the more unfamiliar aspects of 19th-century Russian life. Manifestly more accurate than previous translations, this original version is certain to become a standard for a new generation of readers, bringing a fresh sharpness to the local detail, presenting a more rounded and complex characterization of the hero, and showing the novel's comedy for the first time. 656 pp. Viking hardcover 0-670-83640-0 $30.00

TO THOSE WISHING TO SUBMIT MANUSCRIPTS

Manuscripts for consideration should be submitted in four double-spaced typed copies. (If manuscripts are computer generated, they should be letter quality or near letter quality. Continuous form sheets must be separated.) Notes and block quotations should be double-spaced; notes should be placed at the end of the manuscript and not at the bottoms of pages. Figures, charts, photographs, and other illustrative materials must be available in cameraready form, although camera-ready copy does not have to be sent with the initial submission.

Manuscripts are sent to outside readers in anonymous form and should be prepared accordingly. Library of Congress transliteration and the Chicago Manual of Style are to be followed. In general, articles should not exceed twenty-five typed pages  $8\frac{1}{2}$  and 11 in dimension—including endnotes. Manuscripts will not be returned unless postage is included; please do not send checks.

The policy of the Slavic Review is not to consider materials that have been published or that are being considered for publication elsewhere.

Publication of articles in the Slavic Review is ordinarily limited to those submitted by members of AAASS. Nonmembers wishing to submit manuscripts are asked to request a membership application; please see the inside front cover for information on membership.
