

Figures, Tables and Box

Figures

2.1	Composition of IMF post-tax estimates for oil	page 36
2.2	Composition of IMF post-tax estimates for coal	37
2.3	Composition of IMF post-tax estimates for all fossil fuels	37
2.4	Estimated US subsidies to fossil fuels (millions USD/year)	39
2.5	Coverage disparity across subsidy types in the United States	39
3.1	The wealthy benefit most from fossil fuel subsidies in developing countries	49
3.2	G20 fossil fuel subsidies (pre-tax) in 2015 and health expenditures in 2014	50
5.1	A ‘norm cascade’? Initiated fossil fuel subsidy reforms, 2014–15	89
7.1	Subsidies according to their environmental and trade effects	126
9.1	Overlapping member groupings of the Friends of Fossil Fuel Subsidy Reform	162
11.1	Indonesia fuel prices compared to international oil market prices	203
11.2	Fuel subsidies in Indonesia (2006–15)	203
12.1	Challenges for distributors during the DBTL scheme rollout in India	218
12.2	DBTL scheme’s impact on growth of sales for non-domestic and auto-LPG in India	221
15.1	Stakeholder dynamics in Egypt	270
16.1	Actors in fuel subsidy reform in Trinidad and Tobago	291

Tables

2.1	Overview of subsidy measurement approaches	25
2.2	Mechanisms of value transfer to the energy sector	28
2.3	Global energy subsidy estimates	32
3.1	Summary of case studies of fossil fuel subsidy reform	54
6.1	Fossil fuel subsidy debate in the United States: New York Times and Washington Post coverage	107
6.2	Fossil fuel subsidy debate in the United Kingdom: Guardian and Independent coverage	109
6.3	Fossil fuel subsidy debate in India: Hindu and Times of India coverage	111
6.4	Fossil fuel subsidy debate in Indonesia: Kompas and Tempo coverage	113
6.5	Fossil fuel subsidy debate in Denmark: Politiken and Jyllands-Posten coverage	115
11.1	Timeline of fossil fuel subsidy reforms in Indonesia	197
13.1	Annual subsidy estimates by category for South Africa	232

13.2	Subsidies to coal and electricity production in South Africa	235
13.3	Subsidies to the liquid fuels industry in South Africa	238
14.1	Examples of subsidies to coal extraction in Colombia by subsidy category	250
15.1	Egypt's 2014 and 2016 subsidy reforms	269
16.1	Transport fuels subsidised in Trinidad and Tobago	286
16.2	Actors and frames in fuel subsidy reform debates in Trinidad and Tobago	296
Box
2.1	Common gaps in energy subsidy estimates	33