

The Theater Duke

Georg II of Saxe-Meiningen and the German Stage

Ann Marie Koller. From 1874 to 1890, the touring company of Georg's court theater, under his personal supervision and using many of his brilliant set and costume designs, gave over 2,500 performances that revolutionized the 19th-century European theater. This study focuses on the forces that shaped Georg's ideas of theatrical art, examines the way he transferred those ideas to the theater, and explains how he became, thirty years before Stanislavski, the first modern stage director. THEATRE RESEARCH / RECHERCHES THEATRALES

The International Federation published the journal Theatre Research/Recherches Théâtrales from 1959 to 1975 when it was succeeded by Theatre Research International. During these years many important articles of original research were published covering the whole field of theatre history from the earliest times, and particularly Shakespeare and the Elizabethan period, to more recent figures such as Strindberg, Craig and Beckett. There have been special issues on the themes of Opera, the Playwright as Director, and Reinhardt; a check-list of world theatre on records; and reports on International Conferences and Symposia of the I.F.T.R.

In all 14 volumes were published in 36 issues including a complete index. Most back issues are still available.

University and institutional libraries, and especially those who have subscribed to the new journal Theatre Research International, are recommended to take this opportunity of completing their holding of the earlier issues of this publication, while copies last.

Price: per issue £2 ($3); per volume £4 ($6) plus postage

A few complete runs of the 14 volumes (with two issues in facsimile) are available at £50 ($75). Postage extra.
