IDEAS IN CONFLICT

E. M. Burns. The political theories of the contemporary world that underlie the great intellectual and political movements are here analyzed, contrasted and set in historical perspective. $6.50

PSYCHOLOGY AND RELIGION

G. Stephen Spinks. The first part of this highly readable study expounds modern theories, particularly Freud and Jung. The author then discusses how these theories help to elucidate religious practices and the phenomena of religious experience and mysticism. $6.25

A DEFENCE OF PHILOSOPHY

F. A. Lea. A forceful case for the view of philosophy, its scope and purpose. The author bases his plea on the theory that the layman needs a philosophy to meet rationally the challenge of Communism and Fascism. $3.50

University Paperbacks

ELEMENTS OF METAPHYSICS

A. E. Taylor. A comprehensive account of the main principles of metaphysical speculation. $2.75

THE THEORY OF BEAUTY

E. F. Carritt. The theory of the pleasure in poetry, art and nature. Includes such philosophers as Plato, Aristotle, Kant, Nietzsche and Tolstoy. $2.10

PLATO: THE MAN AND HIS WORK

A. E. Taylor. An account of what Plato actually teaches. For both students and laymen. $2.75

GREEK POLITICAL THEORY

Sir Ernest Barker. Originally published in 1918. A revision of a previous work first published in 1906 under the title, "Political Thought of Plato and Aristotle". $2.75

POWER, POLITICS AND PEOPLE

The Collected Essays of C. WRIGHT MILLS. The essays contained in this book appeared in magazines and journals between the early 1940's and the early 1960's. They range in scope from original interpretations of sociological theory in scholarly journals to trenchant remarks on the contemporary scene in magazines like Saturday Review and The New Leader. This book stands as Mills's major testament as a social critic. ($9.50)

THE SPIRIT OF AMERICAN PHILOSOPHY

by JOHN E. SMITH. This book is an attempt "to lay hold of the spirit of American reflective thinking." Professor Smith discusses here in separate chapters the work of Peirce, James, Royce, Dewey and Whitehead. ($5.50)

ON THE KNOSSOS TABLETS

by LEONARD R. PALMER and JOHN BOARDMAN. This book presents new information (including the private notebooks of Sir Arthur Evans) on a question of crucial importance to Aegean prehistory, the date of the Linear B tablets found at Knossos, together with two diverging interpretations of it. ($11.50)

EURIPIDES: HYSIPYLE

Edited by G. W. BOND. (Oxford Classical and Philosophical Monographs). This is the first annotated edition since that of G. Italie (Berlin 1923). The present editor proposes considerable alteration to the traditional order of the papyrus fragments and a tentative reconstruction of part of the papyrus roll. The edition contains a text and commentary with an Introduction dealing with the principal problems of the play. ($7.75)

DOCUMENTS OF THE CHRISTIAN CHURCH

Edited by HENRY BETTENSON. This new edition is enlarged to include additional documents on the Independents (1685), Catholic Social Policy (1891, 1931, and 1961), the dogma of the Assumption (1950), Anglican Orders (1897), the Church of Scotland (1921), the Church of South India (1947), and the World Council of Churches (1948 and 1961).
