European Review

A Journal of the Academia Europaea

Editor-in-Chief

Theo d'Haen, Leuven University, Belgium

The European Review is a unique interdisciplinary international journal covering a wide range of subjects. It has a strong emphasis on Europe and on economics, history, social science, and general aspects of the sciences. At least two issues each year are devoted mainly or entirely to a single subject and deal in depth with a topic of contemporary importance in Europe; the other issues cover a wide range of subjects but may include a mini-review. Past issues have dealt with: Who owns the Human Genome; From decolonisation to post-colonialism; The future of the welfare state; Democracy in the 21st century; False confessions after repeated interrogation; Living in real and virtual worlds; The Lisbon Earthquake; Historian and moral judgements; Cultural hybridity; Music and brain plasticity; Early language development; The Brain drain; Symmetry and Asymmetry; Museums; Ever bigger firms; Europe's deep crisis.
