THE NOTEBOOKS FOR CRIME AND PUNISHMENT

Fyodor Dostoevsky

Edited, Translated, and with an Introduction
by Edward Wasiolek

"In studying the notebooks one feels like an eavesdropper on Dostoevsky's artistic self-communings. . . . We may plainly observe Dostoevsky's creative logic at work in selection and emphasis, his concern for technique and his struggle to make crystal-clear what is ambiguous in his characters. . . . A veritable storehouse of source material on nearly every aspect of the conception, planning, and writing of Crime and Punishment."—Ernest J. Simmons, New York Times Book Review

A SOVIET HERETIC

Essays by Yevgeny Zamyatin

Edited and Translated by Mirra Ginsburg

Yevgeny Zamyatin—celebrated Russian short story writer, novelist, playwright, and essayist—was one of the very few writers in post-revolutionary Russia to stand up openly against the new regime and its suppression of creative freedom.

"Miss Ginsburg's efforts reveal Zamyatin as the keenest prophet of our age, and the supreme critical intelligence of modern Russian letters."—New York Times Book Review

NEW FROM CALIFORNIA

The "Red Years"

European Socialism vs. Bolshevism, 1919-1921

Albert S. Lindemann

During the two-year interval following World War I, major socialist parties split, communist parties were formed, and repeated efforts were made to spread revolution from Russia to Western Europe. This work presents a comprehensive and balanced picture of this period of unrest and rich ideological ferment. 376 pages $15.75

The New Economic Systems of Eastern Europe

Edited by Hans-Hermann Höhmann, Michael C. Kaser, and Karl C. Thalheim

This up-to-date comparative analysis of changes in the economic mechanisms of Eastern Europe and the USSR is based on works previously available in German only. It is divided into three major sections: Part I studies countries where membership in an industrial association is compulsory and where the government seeks to improve the "Soviet-type system." Part II focuses on three countries where enterprise can choose to use an association and objectives are less controlled. Part III compares planning, trading, legislation, and investment within these two systems. 544 pages $15.00

A History of the Habsburg Empire, 1526-1918

Robert A. Kann

Professor Kann surveys the major historical aspects of the Habsburg empire—diplomatic, political, institutional, socio-economic, and cultural—placing much emphasis on its constituent national groups. He views national issues in relation to both the major historical-political entities and to unorganized ethnic units. 672 pages $25.00

Byzantium and Bulgaria

A Comparative Study

Across the Early Medieval Frontier

Robert Browning

Concentrating on the crucial period of the 9th and 10th centuries, Mr. Browning studies the establishment of the Bulgarian state in the northern half of the Balkan peninsula, its relations with the East Roman Empire, and the development of institutions and way of life. 312 pages $10.95

THE COLD WAR BEGINS

Soviet-American Conflict Over Eastern Europe

LYNN ETHERIDGE DAVIS

Using recently released documents of the Departments of State and War, Professor Davis explains how the views of U.S. officials on postwar peace precluded approval of Soviet efforts to establish a sphere of influence in Eastern Europe through the imposition of Communist regimes. American officials interpreted Soviet actions as intent to expand into Western Europe, and the subsequent undermining of Allied cooperation around the world led to the Cold War. $15.00

LIBERALS IN THE RUSSIAN REVOLUTION

The Constitutional Democratic Party, 1917-1921

WILLIAM G. ROSENBERG

How the Kadets responded to the events of the revolution and failed at the time of the party's greatest crisis is the subject of this study based largely on party journals and emigré archives. Cloth, $25.00; Limited Paper, $9.75

THE EMANCIPATION OF THE RUSSIAN NOBILITY, 1762-1785

ROBERT E. JONES

Citing new archival sources, Robert Jones shows that Catherine the Great's redefinition and reorganization of the Russian nobility were in fact motivated by reasons of state. "A novel and highly persuasive review. . . ."—Times Literary Supplement $12.50

A HISTORY OF THE CZECHOSLOVAK REPUBLIC, 1918-1948

Edited by VICTOR S. MAMATEY and RADOMIR LUZA

"This splendid volume is a collection of papers written by leading scholars on Czechoslovakia. . . . The story of the rise and fall of Czechoslovak democracy is a complex one—both thrilling and tragic. It is told well in this volume."—Virginia Quarterly Review Cloth, $22.50; Limited Paper, $9.75

TURKISH FOREIGN POLICY, 1943-1945

Small State Diplomacy and Great Power Politics

EDWARD WEISBAND

"It presents a detailed and absorbing account of what went on in Turkey during World War II on the political and economic fronts, and of the delicate diplomacy by which Ismet Inonu succeeded in keeping his country out of the hostilities. The author has used every kind of written source, as well as interviewing many of the people who played a part in the story."—Geoffrey Lewis $14.50
