Kennedy vs. Carter The 1980 Battle for the Democratic Party's Soul

Timothy Stanley

"Stanley challenges the conventional wisdom that the 1980 election marked the demise of the New Deal order. By the end of his riveting narrative, readers are likely to conclude that Stanley got it right. More than good history, this book is a serious brief for the enduring relevance of the liberal tradition."—Allen J. Matusow, author of The Unraveling of America: A History of Liberalism in the 1960s

"A fresh, engaging, and insightful account of Ted Kennedy and American liberalism at a turning point."—Bruce Miroff, author of The Liberals' Moment: The McGovern Insurgency and the Identity Crisis of the Democratic Party

Offering Online Scholarship

Scholarship is central to APSA membership. Current and recent back issues of all three APSA journals are available online to members through Cambridge Journals Online. Members can also gain access to the full historical collection through JSTOR subscriptions. Political Research Online (PROL), a collaborative project led by APSA and a consortium of political science and related associations, houses 30,000 searchable conference papers.

Creating Networks and Connecting Scholars

APSA strives to provide valuable opportunities for members to network with colleagues, share ideas, and form relationships to drive their careers. Members receive discounts for APSA conferences—the Teaching and Learning Conference, Conference for Chairs, and the Annual Meeting—as well as access to the association's Organized Sections.

Providing Career and Employment Resources

APSA's eJobs is the most comprehensive online resource of political science employment opportunities and job candidates. It is fully searchable and updated daily with new job listings and candidate resumes. The eJobs placement service at the Annual Meeting brings employers and candidates together in person to greatly facilitate the hiring process.

Supporting Political Science Research

The Centennial Center for Political Science & Public Affairs, located at APSA's headquarters building, provides office space for scholars and students conducting field work in Washington, D.C. Through the Center, APSA also offers a number of research grant opportunities for scholars working in various subfields.

Politics & Gender

Published for the Women and Politics Research Section of APSA

Editors:

Kathleen Dolan
University of Wisconsin, Milwaukee, USA

Aili Mari Tripp
University of Wisconsin, Madison, USA

Politics & Gender is an agenda-setting journal that publishes the highest quality scholarship on gender and politics and on women and politics. It aims to represent the full range of questions, issues, and approaches on gender and women across the major subfields of political science, including comparative politics, international relations, political theory, and U.S. politics. The Editors welcome studies that address fundamental questions in politics and political science from the perspective of gender, as well as those that interrogate and challenge standard theoretical approaches, methodologies, and analytical categories.

The screenshot displays the Stata 11.0 software interface. On the left, the Data Editor shows a dataset with variables x1, x2, x3, and y. The Command window contains the following commands: `drawnorm x1 x2 x3, corr(con)`, `gen y = 0.2 + 0.4*x1 + x2 + mor...`, `regress y x1 x2 x3`, `replace x1 = . if runiform() > 0.7`, `replace x2 = . if runiform() > 0.9`, `mi set wide`, `mi register imputed y x1 x2 x3`, `mi impute mvn y x1 x2, add(5)`, `regress y x1 x2 x3`, `mi register imputed y x1 x2 x3`, and `mi impute mvn y x1 x2, add(5)`. The Results window shows the output of the `mi impute mvn` command, including the observed log likelihood and the number of imputations. The MI - Multiple-Imputation Control Panel is open, showing the 'Estimate' tab with 'Linear regression models' selected. The Stata Graph window displays a scatter plot titled 'Fuel economy and automobile weight' with the equation $mpg^i = \alpha + \beta weight + \epsilon$. The graph shows a negative correlation between weight (in pounds) and miles per gallon (mpg).
