

Music from Cambridge

Cambridge
Educational

For GCSE

Keynote Music to GCSE Tim Cain

- ◆ A brand new course for GCSE, geared to the integrated skills of Listening, Performing, and Composing

0 521 33821 2

Paperback £4.50

In preparation

0 521 33822 0

Keynote Plus about £7.95

0 521 35457 9

2 Cassettes about £18.00 + VAT in UK

For Younger Pupils

Cambridge Young Musicals General editor: Michael Burnett

The Bells of Lyonesse

P. Scupham and D. Tutt

0 521 33590 9

Complete Production edition £12.95

Duffy and the devil NEW

P. Scupham and D. Tutt

0 521 33593 0

Performers' edition about £11.95

0 521 33592 2

Piano/Conductor edition about £15.95

In preparation

Seaspell, and African Madonna

Order your approval copies from the Inspection Copy Department, at the following address

Cambridge University Press

The Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU

Popular Music

Popular Music covers all aspects of popular music – from Abba to Zydeco, from broadside ballad to hip-hop. It presents results of scholarly work in an accessible form, while at the same time responding to current events.

Popular Music appears three times a year, often as a thematic issue:

7/2 South Asia and the West

7/3 TV/video/film music

8/1 Performance

8/3 African popular music

Subscription

Volume 7: January, May & October 1988

£34.00 for institutions; £18.50 for individuals; single parts £13.00.

Volume 8: January, May & October 1989

£37.00 for institutions; £20.00 for individuals; single parts £14.00; airmail £9.50 per year extra.

ISSN 0261-1430

For further information, or to subscribe write to the Journals Publicity Dept, Cambridge University Press, Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge, England CB2 2RU. Telephone Cambridge (0223) 325804

 Cambridge
Journals

Announcing a new journal devoted to opera...

Opera

CAMBRIDGE
JOURNAL

From early 1989 Cambridge Opera Journal will be published three times a year. Its editors are ARTHUR GROOS and ROGER PARKER of Cornell University. Cambridge Opera Journal covers a wide variety of disciplines, ranging from musicology to literature, theatre, and history. Early issues will include Carolyn Abbate on Tristan; Julian Budden on Puccini's first opera; John Roselli on opera singers and their patrons; Paolo Gallarati on Mozart and da Ponte; and Carl Dahlhaus asks What is a musical drama?

ISSN 0954-5867

- Four to six articles an issue
- An interdisciplinary approach
- Selective reviews of books, recordings and productions
- Commentary section

To order or for further information contact the Journals Publicity Department, Cambridge University Press, Edinburgh Building, Shaftesbury Road, Cambridge CB2 2RU (tel: 0223 325806). Readers in the USA and Canada should write to Cambridge University Press, 32 East 57th St, New York, NY 10022, USA.

Notes for Contributors

1. All contributions (3 copies) and correspondence should be sent to either Editor: Professor John Paynter, Department of Music, University of York, Heslington, York YO1 5DD, or Professor Keith Swanwick, Department of Music, University of London Institute of Education, 20 Bedford Way, London WC1H 0AL.
2. All material for review, and text of reviews, should be sent to the Review Editor, Andrew Pegg, 14 Colchester Avenue, Manor Park, London E12 5LE. Only one copy of the review need be sent.
3. Articles should be of interest to teachers of music, clearly written without unnecessary jargon and show evidence of careful and critical enquiry. Writers should avoid all forms of gender and racial stereotyping.
4. Articles should be normally within the range 3,000–10,000 words, although longer or shorter articles may be accepted by arrangements with the Editors.
5. Reviews and surveys will have their lengths prescribed by the Review Editor, at the time of commissioning.
6. Contributions (articles, review articles, reviews) should be clearly typed on one side of the paper only (preferably A4 size). All material should be typed double spaced with generous margins. In addition to the three copies submitted (one, in the case of reviews), contributors should keep a further copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.
7. Articles should be accompanied by a summary of approximately 100 words, together with information about the position/s held by the author/s and giving full details of any acknowledgements. In long articles, subheadings are encouraged.
8. All quotations and references should be identified in the text by author and date to link with the full references listed alphabetically at the end of the article. E.g. in the text, bracketed thus: (Self, 1976); in the alphabetical reference list thus: Self, G. 1976. Make a New Sound. London, Universal Edition.
9. The full list of references should be typed, double spaced, on a separate sheet of paper at the end of the article. They must include the names and initials of all the authors cited (arranged in alphabetical order of the authors' surnames) and followed by (in the case of books) the date of publication, the title (underscored), the place of publication and the name of the publisher, or (in the case of articles cited) the date of publication, the full title of the article (not underscored), the name of the journal in which the article appeared (underscored), the volume number, issue number, and page number/s. Reference to an article which appears in a book should be made thus: the author's name, date of publication (in brackets), title of the article (in inverted commas), 'In' followed by author/s name(s) and title of the book (underscored), place of publication and name of publisher. E.g. Pollard, M. (1978). 'Folk Music in junior and middle schools'. In Leach, R. and Palmer, R., Folk Music in School. Cambridge, Cambridge University Press.
10. Notes other than bibliographical references should be given only when absolutely essential. These should be referred to in numerical order throughout the text and the number shown as superscript. The notes should then appear on a separate sheet of paper at the end of the article.
11. All necessary illustrations should accompany the typescript but should not be inserted in the text. All photographs, drawings and diagrams should be referred to as "figures" and should be numbered consecutively in the order in which they are referred to in the text. A list of captions should be provided on a separate sheet. Photographs should be well-contrasted prints with glossy finish (preferably 10" x 8"), if possible mounted on thin card. Each should have, lightly written on the back with felt-tipped pen, the author's name and the figure number. Authors to whom first-class photographic facilities are not available are encouraged to send both marked contact prints and the negatives under registered cover. Drawings and diagrams should be done in indian ink on strong paper, white card, or good-quality tracing paper.
12. A cassette tape of 40 minutes maximum duration will be available once a year, normally accompanying every third issue of the British Journal of Music Education. Contributors may wish to avail themselves of this opportunity to present musical examples, even if these refer to articles which have appeared in either of the two previous issues. Recorded material must be submitted in its final edited form (on cassette or open-reel). To facilitate transfer to the published tape, it will be helpful if contributors could ensure that the master tapes are of the highest possible quality. Individual items on the tape should be identified by aural cues which will correspond with a typewritten list. The author's name should be clearly written on each tape and tape box.
13. Proofs of all articles accepted will be sent to authors for correction of typographical errors only. Failure to return proofs within the specified deadline may lead to the Editors sending their own corrected proofs to the printer without further reference to the author.
14. Twenty-five offprints will be supplied free of charge to authors on publication of a paper. These must be shared in case of joint authorship. Additional offprints may be purchased if ordered at proof stage.
15. Authors will be requested to assign their copyright to Cambridge University Press to protect their rights and those of the Journal. Authors are responsible for obtaining any necessary permissions to quote copyright material in their article.

BRITISH JOURNAL OF MUSIC EDUCATION

Volume 6 Number 1, March 1989

CONTENTS

The Contributors	1
Robert Schenck: Above all, Learning an Instrument must be Fun!	3
John Wilks: The Contemporary Instrumentalist	7
Dorothy Tipton: Music in the Certificate of Pre-Vocational Education: A Music Course for Special People	55
Yvonne Packer: Music with Emotionally Disturbed Children	69
Helen Williams: The Value of Music to the Deaf	81
Earl Davey: An Assessment of Common Practice in Music Education	99
Information	105

BOOK REVIEWS

© Cambridge University Press 1989

Cambridge University Press

The Pitt Building, Trumpington Street, Cambridge CB2 1RP

32 East 57th Street, New York, NY 10022, USA

10 Stamford Road, Oakleigh, Melbourne 3166, Australia

Printed in Great Britain by the University Press, Cambridge