

EDITORS' NOTE

This special issue of NPT brings together papers originally delivered at a conference on the 150th anniversary of the 1838 Anglo-Turkish Trade Convention. This was the Third Biennial Conference on the Ottoman Empire and the World-Economy, held in November 1988 at the State University of New York at Binghamton. The conference was organized by the Fernand Braudel Center for the Study of Economies, Historical Systems, and Civilizations, and the Southwest Asian and North African Studies (SWANA) Program of the State University of New York at Binghamton.
