Manuscripts

The China Quarterly welcomes the submission of manuscripts from scholars, including research students, on all aspects of contemporary China and from all points of view, including those which deal with Taiwan and the Overseas Chinese. Articles on China prior to 1949 are also welcome, particularly, but not exclusively, when these relate directly to contemporary China or to the history of the Chinese Communist Party. Articles should be submitted, in triplicate, to the editorial office. They should be typed in double spacing, footnotes being placed at the end of the article; preferably conform to the styling of The China Quarterly; and normally not exceed 8–10,000 words in length. Submission of a manuscript is taken to imply that it has not previously been published and that it is not currently being considered elsewhere.

The China Quarterly is published by the Contemporary China Institute of the School of Oriental and African Studies, London University. The views expressed in articles are those of individual authors and do not necessarily represent the views of the Contemporary China Institute.

ASIAN Thought & Society

An International Review

ATS is a forum of international opinion on theoretical issues which include ideological development and analyses of social structures and changes in Pacific and South Asian countries.

ATS, in its articles, provides in-depth analyses of Asian issues;

ATS, in its dialogues, provides creative reflections and observations of scholars and statesmen unencumbered by scholarly apparatus;

ATS, in its Profiles, provides brief but solid analyses of current problems serving as timesaving sources for general readers and enabling specialists to keep abreast of Asian affairs outside of their own particular fields and areas.
