The journal is concerned with the study of philosophy in all its branches: logic, metaphysics, epistemology, ethics, aesthetics, social and political philosophy and the philosophies of religion, science, history, language, mind and education. The journal is not committed to any particular school or method and contributors are expected to avoid needless technicality. There is a section on new books which includes reviews, book notes and a list of books received.

Subscription (until 31 December 1983) for four issues and two supplements £44.00. Single parts: £8.00. Members of the Royal Institute of Philosophy receive the journal free and may purchase the supplements if they wish. Membership costs £13.50 or $30.00 (Students £7 or $15.00)
