Essays on the Cultural History of Vienna and Budapest

Péter Hanák

With a preface by Carl E. Schorske

A century ago, Vienna and Budapest were the capital cities of the western and eastern halves of the increasingly unstable Austro-Hungarian empire and were scenes of intense cultural activity. However, as Péter Hanák shows in these vignettes of fin-de-siècle life, the intellectual and artistic vibrancy common to the two cities emerged from deeply different civic cultures. Hanák surveys the urban development of the two cities and reviews the effects of modernization on various aspects of their cultures.

“The Garden and the Workshop is not only for lovers of Vienna and Budapest, it is for history buffs of all stripes.”

—Michael Henry Heim,
Washington Post Book World

“Hanák always writes well, is always absorbing, and is consistently receptive to the latest trends in historiography. . . . Hanák’s account . . . will continue to fascinate as long as people read cultural history.”—Gábor Gyáni,
The Budapest Review of Books
