

HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY OUTSTANDING BOOK AWARD

Nominations are being accepted for the History of Education Society's Outstanding Book Award. Books bearing 1993 and 1994 publication dates will be considered. The Award Committee will consider books on the history of education defined broadly to include schools, teachers, higher education, families, and a wide range of cultural and educational institutions. The winner of this award of $250 will be announced at the Society's annual meeting in the fall of 1995. Inquiries should be sent to:

Professor Thomas James
Education Department
Box 1938
Brown University
Providence, RI 02912

CALL FOR PAPERS

The History of Education Society will hold its annual meeting in Minneapolis, Minnesota, 19–22 October 1995, at the Minneapolis Athletic Club. The Program Committee welcomes proposals for individual papers or complete sessions consisting of several papers with a chairperson and a commentator. Proposals should include the theme and conclusions of each paper (1–3 pages) and a short (1-page) vita of each presenter. Proposals are also solicited for research-in-progress roundtables, open panel discussions on areas of general intellectual interest, and informal sessions showcasing the work of new scholars. Send all proposals (4 copies) by 1 April 1995 to:

HISTORY OF EDUCATION SOCIETY

HENRY BARNARD PRIZE

The History of Education Society will award the Henry Barnard Prize in 1995 for the best graduate student essay in the history of education. Nominations by faculty, graduate advisers, department chairs, and deans, as well as self-nominations by students, are welcome. The deadline for submissions is 15 April 1995. Essays should be no longer than 25 pages exclusive of notes. The winner will be invited to deliver her/his paper at the fall 1995 meeting of the History of Education Society and to publish the essay in the History of Education Quarterly.

The Prize Committee will define history of education broadly to include work on schools, teachers, higher education, families, and a wide range of cultural and educational institutions. The Society reserves the right not to award the prize if the Committee makes such a recommendation.

Nominations, accompanied by six copies of the essay, should be directed to the chair of the Prize Committee:

- In item 16, indicate date of the issue in which this Statement of Ownership will be printed.
- Item 17 must be signed.

Failure to file or publish a statement of ownership may lead to suspension of second-class authorization.

John Dewey and American Democracy

ROBERT B. WESTBROOK

New in Paper!

A WINNER OF THE 1992 CRITICS' CHOICE AWARD

GIVEN BY THE AMERICAN EDUCATIONAL STUDIES ASSOCIATION

"The most thorough, and within the paradigm it is written, balanced study of its kind on Dewey and, collaterally, issues which have engaged American scholars and critics of liberalism in debate for several years."—History of Education

"The best book yet about the public Dewey. Its strengths are many: a commonsense, even old-fashioned historical methodology that . . . lets Dewey speak for himself; comprehensive but unobtrusive and gracefully articulated scholarship; and an attractive sympathy with the subject that invites us to see Dewey as a potential source of enlightenment and even inspiration."

—William A. Galston, Raritan

"An exceptionally intelligent, rigorous, and thorough book. Westbrook's call for a renewed appreciation of Dewey's relevance . . . is strengthened by great learning and conviction."

—Lewis Menand, New York Review of Books

Jewish Learning in American Universities

The First Century

Paul Ritterband and Harold S. Wechsler

Jewish Learning in American Universities narrates the evolution of Jewish studies as an academic discipline within the history and sociology of higher education in America. Drawing from university and private archives, Ritterband and Wechsler offer a fascinating account of the history, personalities, and debates surrounding Jewish studies programs as they grew on American campuses in the second half of this century.
