HUGO BLACK

The Alabama Years

VIRGINIA VAN DER VEER HAMILTON. "A sparkling and sensitive treatment. First-rate in every way."—T. Harry Williams. "An absorbing example of historical-biographical writing at its best."—Publishers' Weekly. "A compelling piece of writing, . . . It is also an impressive piece of scholarship which will vastly simplify the tasks of those who will seek to mine more specialized veins of the Black career. . . . In the future no one who seeks to understand the times which produced Hugo Black can afford to be without this book."—Birmingham Post-Herald

BIRACIAL POLITICS

Conflict and Coalition in the Metropolitan South

CHANDLER DAVIDSON. The author takes a critical look at contemporary Negro politics in the South's largest metropolis—Houston, Texas—and compares his findings there with black political activism in other southern cities. Concluding that political efforts of Negroes heretofore have largely failed, Davidson rejects violent revolution and black separatism as solutions and proposes a progressive, biracial, class-based coalition strategy which could succeed in the urban South of the 1970's.

LATIN AMERICAN THOUGHT

A Historical Introduction

HAROLD EUGENE DAVIS. The most complete survey of the subject yet published, this work is a valuable introduction to the social and political thought of Latin America from pre-Conquest times to the present. The author's major concern is with the revolutionary character of Latin American thought and the national quest for identity that has accompanied it. He also gives attention to concepts of law, economics, education, anthropology, and ethics.
