PRESIDENT—PROFESSOR J. L. MYRES, O.B.E. Litt.D. F.B.A.

THE Society, founded in 1879 to advance the study of Greek language, literature, history and art, maintains (in conjunction with the sister Society for Roman Studies)

- I. A Library of some 15,000 volumes, containing costly works and periodicals, not easy to consult, and very difficult to borrow, elsewhere.
- II. Some 10,000 lantern slides covering the whole domain of ancient life and art. These are divided into:—
  - (a) The general collection for personal selection.
  - (b) Sets of slides with lecture texts.

The Journal of Hellenic Studies was first issued in 1880, and has since been published in half-yearly parts. It is recognised both at home and abroad as the leading British organ of Greek archaeology. Fifty-four volumes and five supplements have been issued. It contains, in addition to articles by first authorities, abundant plates and other illustrations, and reviews of recent books of importance to classical studies. It is issued free to members.

Application for membership, or for information about the Society, should be addressed to the Secretary of the Hellenic Society, at 50 Bedford Square, London, W.C.1

The Classical Association.

The objects of the Classical Association are to promote the development and maintain the well-being of classical studies, and in particular (a) to impress upon public opinion the claim of such studies to an eminent place in the national scheme of education; (b) to improve the practice of classical teaching; (c) to encourage investigation and call attention to new discoveries; (d) to create opportunities for intercourse among lovers of classical learning.

Membership of the Association is open to men and women alike. The annual subscription is 5s. (life composition: individual, £3 15s., corporate, £5), and there is an entrance fee of 5s., from which members of local branches are exempt and which is not charged to Libraries and Corporate Bodies. Members receive a copy of the annual Proceedings of the Association and, on a payment of 2/6, of The Year's Work in Classical Studies (both post free). They may also obtain the Classical Review and Classical Quarterly at reduced prices, though the reduction cannot be guaranteed unless the subscription is paid before January 31st in each year. Greece and Rome may be obtained for an annual subscription of 7s. 6d.

Applications for membership should be addressed to the Assistant Treasurer, Classical Association, c/o The Triangle Offices, 61, South Molton Street, London, W.1.
