Foreign Policy bulletin

Volume 4/Number 1
July/August 1993

The FOREIGN POLICY BULLETIN is an educational and reference periodical published bimonthly by Mediacom, Inc., a private, public service corporation. Its purpose is to make available a timely and systematic record of U.S. foreign policy and of important, relevant documents from international sources as well. Each issue is indexed and there is an annual index at the end of each volume. While using the same format as the discontinued "Department of State Bulletin" and maintaining continuity with that publication, the BULLETIN's coverage is broader and more thorough than any State Department publication could be. In addition to major addresses, statements, and other public reports and remarks of the President, the Secretary of State, and Administration officials in all executive departments, the BULLETIN includes selected statements by Members of Congress and expert testimony before congressional committees; reports and other materials from international organizations; speeches and other statements by foreign and international officials; summaries of treaties and other agreements to which the United States is or may become a party; and other information of particular interest to the conduct and study of U.S. foreign relations. The BULLETIN is not affiliated with the government and thus has complete editorial autonomy.
