The Nutrition Society has as its object the advancement of the scientific study of nutrition and its application to the maintenance of human and animal health.

Application for membership is invited from anyone whose work has contributed to the scientific knowledge of nutrition, whether such work has been in the laboratory, the field or the clinic, and whether experimental, clinical, agricultural or statistical in nature. There is also a student membership scheme with reduced subscriptions.

Particulars of the Nutrition Society and application forms for membership may be had from the Honorary Secretary, Dr J. C. Mathers, The Nutrition Society, 10 Cambridge Court, 210 Shepherds Bush Road, London W6 7NJ.

The British Journal of Nutrition (ISSN 0007-1145) is published monthly by Cambridge University Press for The Nutrition Society, which owns it and controls its publication. A volume consists of six parts and two volumes appear each year.

SUBMITTING PAPERS

Papers should be sent to Professor D. A. T. Southgate, British Journal of Nutrition, 10 Cambridge Court, 210 Shepherds Bush Road, Hammersmith, London W6 7NJ. They should be written concisely and must represent the results of original nutritional research or a new interpretation of existing knowledge not previously published. Full requirements and details of how papers should be prepared are given in Directions to Contributors printed in Part 1 of each volume but authors should also consult a recent issue to acquaint themselves with the style and conventions of the Journal. Submitted papers (three copies) should be accompanied by a signed statement to the effect that the author accepts the conditions laid down in Directions to Contributors.
