

St Vincent's HOSPICE FOR THE DYING

Broad Green Road, Old Swan, Liverpool, 13

(Under the Care of the Sisters of Charity of St Vincent de Paul).

Supported by Voluntary Contributions

Phone STOneycroft 3339

The Hospice for the Dying was opened with a view to according spiritual and temporal comfort, tender nursing, and loving care to persons whose insufficient means and friendless condition prevent them from being properly cared for in their homes when death draws near.

Subscriptions and contributions in kind will be thankfully acknowledged by Rev. Sister Treasurer.

Remember 'THE HOSPICE' and PRAY for the SICK and the DYING.

WE ARE NOW EXTENDING THE PROPERTY TO COMPRISE ANOTHER 36 BEDS,

at a cost of nearly £25,000.

“THAT THE CHURCH MAY SPREAD AND INCREASE: this is the intention for which we must offer our prayers and our labours”, says Pope Pius XII in his encyclical on the Mystical Body.

The work of the Mill Hill Fathers in Africa, India, the Far East and New Zealand, has this one aim. You can work with them for the spread of the Church by fostering vocations to the missionary priesthood.

THE TORCH

is the symbol of truth with which St Dominic burned out the Albigensian errors.

Heresies still burn up good Dominicans—or vice-versa. That's why THE TORCH (the official magazine of the Third Order of St Dominic in the United States) wages war against the modern errors in a gamut of articles that is accurately described as 'From Summa to Saucepan'. Solid doctrine is made readable and practicable for you students, workers, teachers, and lay apostles—married or single, in such controversial articles as: TV or Not TV: Advertising and the Christian and Mediocrity in Modern Women: in such theological writings as: Truth for Tertiaries and Spirituality for Children. In its pages will be found many fine book reviews as well.

THE TORCH is a paper pulpit from which Dominicans, secular and religious, are still preaching the TRUTH. But what good is a preacher without an audience?—Needless to say, we welcome your subscriptions.
