DENVER MEETING

The Fourteenth Annual Meeting of the African Studies Association took place at the Denver Hilton Hotel, November 3-6, and was attended by close to 700 persons. Special thanks go to Professor James B. Wolf (Program Chairman), Cynthia Kahn (Coordinator), and J. Leo Cefkin (Local Arrangements) whose concern and hard work were in large part responsible for the success of the 1971 meeting which featured fifty panels and workshops. A Denver Post article regarding the Wednesday evening plenary session chaired by Goler T. Butcher, Staff Consultant to the House Subcommittee on Africa, is reprinted in this newsletter on page 45.

A list of papers presented at the Denver meeting and published by the Association is available on request from the Secretariat (218 Shiffman Center Center, Brandeis University, Waltham, Massachusetts 02154). Panelists who have not already sent a clean copy of their paper to Mary Ann Taylor at this address are requested to do so immediately.
