GUIDE FOR CONTRIBUTORS

Articles: Manuscripts should be submitted to the DRJ editor. DRJ is a refereed journal using a blind review process. Article manuscripts must be accompanied by written assurance that they have not been published, submitted, or accepted for publication elsewhere. They will not be returned unless accompanied by return postage.

Manuscripts should contribute original material. They may be discussions of contemporary or historical dance, theory and methods, critical syntheses, or evaluations of the state of knowledge or methods in the different disciplines involved in dance research. The editor and at least two outside readers evaluate articles. Every attempt is made to notify authors regarding acceptance within three months. The editor reserves the right to reject or return for revision any material on the grounds of inappropriate subject matter, quality, or length.

Authors must submit manuscripts to the current editor through email. Prepare the manuscript for blind review by creating a separate title page, including name, manuscript title, and contact information. The entire manuscript, including notes, bibliography, and indented long quotations, should be double-spaced. Notes and bibliographies should follow the Chicago Manual of Style, 15th ed. (author-date citation system). Illustrative materials, such as graphs, maps, and graphic notation, should be done in black ink and should be camera ready. Photographs should have a glossy finish. Illustrative materials may also be submitted in digital form: 1200 dpi for line art and 300 dpi for photographs; TIFF is the preferred format. Authors must obtain permission to publish illustrative materials if by individuals other than themselves. All manuscripts must be accompanied by an abstract of 50–100 words and biographical information of four to six lines that includes current evidence of expertise in the topic of the article.

Reviews: Book and media reviews are assigned by the Reviews editor, but individuals wishing to review a particular book may submit an inquiry to the Reviews editor. Reviews in the current issue are the best guide to correct format. The heading should include name of author(s) or editor(s), book title (italicized), place of publication, name of publisher, year of publication, number of pages, number of illustrations, bibliography, index, cloth or paperbound, and price. Reviews should be scholarly in orientation and approximately 1,200–1,500 words in length. DRJ uses American spelling and punctuation.

Final Manuscript Approval: Authors of articles will be consulted before editorial decisions are made final. Page proofs will be sent during the production process and should be examined by authors and returned within the specified time.

Copyright: DRJ publishes previously unpublished original research. CORD copyrights each issue of the journal as a collective work; individual authors retain rights to their individual works. Authors of individual works published in CORD have the right to republish their own work in whole or in part, and in identical or modified form. As the original publisher, CORD requests a letter to the Chair of the CORD editorial board regarding any republication. All republications, in whatever form, must be credited with one of the following statements:

This article was originally published in
Dance Research Journal, Vol. (number), No.
(number), (date).

An earlier version of this article appeared in
Dance Research Journal, Vol. (number), No.
(number), (date).

Complimentary Copies: The Publisher shall supply each first-named author of an article (but not book review) with 2 copies of the issue in which their article published, as well as a final PDF file of their article free of charge as requested by the author at proof stage. Non-first-named authors will receive a final PDF file of their article free of charge as requested by the author at proof stage.
