Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

Cambridge has a vibrant programme of books and journals spanning all geographical areas of the world.

We publish prestigious book series and stand-alone titles that analyse regions through a variety of disciplines in both the humanities and social sciences, ranging from politics, economics and history through to anthropology and religion.

Our multi- and interdisciplinary journals regularly achieve high Impact Factors and lead their respective fields.

History

Books and Journals from
Cambridge University Press

History is the largest single subject area for the Press. It is a programme with both depth and breadth, ranging in subject matter from late antiquity to the present day, international in scope and embracing new approaches.

Our publishing includes major reference series, textbooks and monographs, as well as a collection of distinguished journals affiliated to the world's leading scholarly societies.

Together, they reflect the diversity of the discipline and offer an unmatched resource for today's historians.

Africa Bibliography is the authoritative guide to works in African studies, providing a rich and interactive resource for the study of Africa. Published under the auspices of the International African Institute since 1984, the Bibliography is now available as a fully searchable database of the current and past volumes. This user-friendly database is available for purchase by institutions for an annual licence fee. For free trials and further information visit cambridge.org/afb or email journals@cambridge.org. The print version is still available as part of a print + electronic package. For full details of the different subscription options, visit cambridge.org/afb.

The screenshot shows the Africa Bibliography website interface. At the top, it says 'CAMBRIDGE JOURNALS' and 'IAI'. Below that, there's a search bar with 'Quick Search', 'Full Search', and 'Browse' buttons. The main search area has three input fields: 'Keyword', 'Keyword', and 'Journal Title', with 'AND' buttons between them. Below the search fields are sections for 'Restrict your search by region, country, subject category or content type:' and 'Restrict your search by year of publication:'. The 'LINKS' section on the right includes 'Home', 'Guide to the Bibliography', 'Introductory articles', 'About the Computers', 'Subscription Options', and 'Request Institutional Trial'. At the bottom, it says 'Access provided by: Faculty of Classics, University of Cambridge' and 'Access to: 2004 2005 2006 2007 2008 2009'.

Works on Africa published during 2017

Edited by R.E. Bartholomew

This authoritative guide to published works in African studies has been published annually since 1984. The Africa Bibliography includes a wide range of material: books, articles in journals, and book chapters, covering the whole of Africa. It lists works published in a number of languages, such as Portuguese, Swahili, French and German, as well as English; categorises by region, country and subject; and includes an author index and a detailed thematic index. The Africa Bibliography records publications on Africa of interest to students of Africa, principally in the social and environmental sciences, humanities and arts; though some items from the medical, biological and natural sciences, likely to be of interest to a reader from a social science/arts background are included. This annual publication records the previous year's work in its field, with provision for retrospective inclusion of earlier items. It is prepared in association with the International African Institute's journal Africa.

Richard E. Bartholomew is a bibliographer who has a PhD in the Study of Religion from SOAS, University of London. He also works as a book indexer and copy editor, and he has published on religion and media.

The Africa Bibliography is available as a fully searchable database of all volumes published to date.
