Ageing & Society

Published for the Centre for Policy on Ageing and the British Society of Gerontology

Editor

Christina R. Victor, Brunel University, UK

Ageing & Society is an inter-disciplinary and international journal devoted to the understanding of human ageing and the circumstances of older people in their social and cultural contexts. It draws contributions and has readers from many academic social science disciplines, and from clinical medicine and the humanities. In addition to original articles, Ageing & Society publishes book reviews, occasional review articles and special issues.

Ageing & Society has now moved to online submissions. The entire review process is now being conducted through the Manuscript Central platform, including revisions and editorial assessments. If you wish to submit a paper to the journal please do so via the website.

Canadian Journal on Aging / La Revue canadienne du vieillissement

Published on behalf of the Canadian Association on Gerontology/
L'Association canadienne de gérontologie

Editor-in-Chief

Margaret J. Penning, University of Victoria, Canada

This journal disseminates the latest work of researchers in the social and biological sciences who study the older population of Canada and other countries; informs policy debates relevant to aging; seeks to improve the quality of life for Canada's older population and for older populations in other parts of the world through the publication of research that focuses on the broad range of relevant issues; and encourages the exchange of the latest ideas in gerontological research.

Du Bois Review:

Social Science Research on Race

Published for the W.E.B. Du Bois Institute for African and African American Research, Harvard University

Editors

Lawrence D. Bobo, Harvard University, USA

Michael C. Dawson, University of Chicago, USA

Du Bois Review: Social Science Research on Race (DBR) is an innovative periodical that presents and analyzes the best cutting-edge research on race from the social sciences. It provides a forum for discussion and increased understanding of race and society from a range of disciplines, including but not limited to economics, political science, sociology, anthropology, law, communications, public policy, psychology, and history. Each issue of DBR opens with remarks from the editors concerning the three subsequent and substantive sections: STATE OF THE DISCIPLINE, where broad-gauge essays and provocative think-pieces appear; STATE OF THE ART, dedicated to observations and analyses of empirical research; and STATE OF THE DISCOURSE, featuring expansive book reviews, special feature essays, and occasionally debates. Many issues also now include a conversation between Professor Henry Louis Gates, Jr. and an eminent scholar on broad areas of research regarding race.
