Political Science Research and Methods

THE JOURNAL OF THE EUROPEAN POLITICAL SCIENCE ASSOCIATION

Political Science Research and Methods (PSRM) is a general political science journal dedicated to publishing original scholarly work of the highest quality from all subfields of political science.

PSRM seeks research that applies rigorous methods to empirical or theoretical problems and promotes a rigorous scientific approach to the study of politics. Work at the intersection of political science and related disciplines such as economics and sociology is also welcomed.

World Politics

Published for the
Princeton Institute for International and Regional Affairs

Chair of the Editorial Board

Atul Kohli, Princeton University, USA

World Politics, founded in 1948, is an internationally renowned quarterly journal of political science produced under the editorial sponsorship of the Princeton Institute for International and Regional Studies at Princeton University. The journal is published in both print and online versions. Open to contributions by all scholars, World Politics invites submission of research articles that make theoretical and empirical contributions to the literature, review articles, and research notes bearing on problems in international relations and comparative politics. The journal does not publish articles on current affairs, policy pieces, or narratives of a journalistic nature. Articles submitted for consideration are unsolicited, except for review articles, which are usually commissioned.
