

The British Journal of Aesthetics

Editor: T J Diffey, Reader in Philosophy,
University of Sussex

The main purpose of The British Journal of Aesthetics is to provide a medium for study of the philosophy of art and the principles of aesthetic appreciation and judgement, and this it does in the context of all the arts. As well as general aesthetics, experience of both fine and applied art is examined from the point of view of the psychologist, the sociologist, the historian, the teacher, and the general critic.

Recent Articles Include:

Michael Clark Humour, Laughter and the Structure of Thought

David Carr Thought and Action in the Art of Dance

Stuart Sim Deconstructing the Pun

Bohdan Dziemidok Controversy about the Aesthetic Nature of Art

A T Winterbourne Art and Mathematics in Kant's Critical Philosophy

Dabney Townsend Archibald Alison: Aesthetic Experience and Emotion

Cambridge Texts in the History of Political Thought

Edited by

RAYMOND GEUSS, QUENTIN SKINNER and RICHARD TUCK

This major new series will make available to students and teachers all the important texts required for an understanding of the history of political thought. As well as the texts traditionally regarded as 'central' to western political theory the series will include a number of less well-known works, in particular those needed to establish an adequate intellectual context for the study of the major thinkers.

- The first comprehensive coverage of texts in political thought within one series
- Many major new translations
- All texts based on the best available versions
- Introductions by leading international experts reflecting the latest scholarship
- Important contextual material on the authors of the major texts
- Up-to-date guide to further reading in the secondary literature
- Chronology of important personal and historical events

Information for Authors

Prospective authors should send their contributions, typed and double-spaced on quarto or A4 paper, to the Editor, Mr Renford Bambrough, Royal Institute of Philosophy, 14 Gordon Square, London WC1H 0AG. They should retain a second copy for the purpose of checking proofs. Articles submitted should conform to Hart's Rules for Compositors and Readers (Oxford University Press, 1967). The Editor may alter manuscripts wherever necessary to make them conform to the stylistic and bibliographical conventions of the journal. Single quotation marks should be used except where there is a quotation within another. The titles of books and journals should be underlined (i.e. to be printed in italics), as should foreign words. Titles of articles should be in single quotation marks.

Notes and references will be printed as footnotes and should be typed (double-spacing) on a separate sheet, numbered consecutively. They should be referred to in the text by superscripts. Citations should be as follows:

<sup>4</sup>W. C. Wimsatt, 'Some Problems with the Concept of Feedback', Boston Studies in the Philosophy of Science, VIII, R. C. Buck and R. S. Cohen (eds.) (Dordrecht: D. Reidel, 1971), 242.

The return of contributions cannot be guaranteed unless they are accompanied by stamps, or in the case of contributions from abroad, by international coupons, to cover postage. A self-addressed envelope should also be enclosed.

Only corrections of printer's errors can be allowed in proofs. Authors are therefore asked to send any alterations or additions to Mr Bambrough as soon as possible after receiving his letter of acceptance.

Authors of articles, discussion papers and review articles will receive twenty-five offprints free of charge. Additional offprints can be ordered when proofs are returned by arrangement with the Institute.

Books for review should be sent to the Editor at the Institute and not to Cambridge University Press. Publishers are asked to note that non-philosophical works are not reviewed in Philosophy.

Authors' corrected proofs should be sent to Mr Bambrough at St John's College, Cambridge. All other correspondence should be addressed to the Institute and not to any address in Cambridge.
