TEMPORAL BONE SURGICAL DISSECTION COURSES

OFFERED BY

THE DEPARTMENT OF OTORHINOLARYNGOLOGY

THE UNIVERSITY OF MICHIGAN MEDICAL SCHOOL, ANN ARBOR, MICHIGAN

MALCOLM D. GRAHAM, M.D.—COURSE DIRECTOR

8–12 NOVEMBER 1982

10–14 JANUARY 1983

THESE Courses will be given in the new Temporal Bone Surgical Dissection Laboratory of the Department of Otorhinolaryngology and the Kresge Hearing Research Institute of the University of Michigan.

These intensive one week courses will emphasize the surgical and anatomical approaches to the temporal bone and will be presented in a manner relevant for the otologic surgeon, utilizing lectures and videotape presentations of surgical techniques, as well as temporal bone dissection.

Both mornings and afternoons will be spent in the dissection laboratory, thereby giving extensive drilling experience in both temporal bone anatomy and surgical techniques. Lectures and demonstrations will be provided by members of the faculty of the Department of Otorhinolaryngology and Kresge Hearing Research Institute, thereby uniquely blending basic science and clinical otologic instruction. Drill handpieces and dissection instruments will be provided.

The fee for these courses will be $1,000.00 for each physician.

MEETING ANNOUNCEMENT

IVTH INTERNATIONAL SYMPOSIUM ON NASOPHARYNGEAL
CARCINOMAKUALA LUMPUR, MALAYSIA
27-29 SEPTEMBER 1982

THE IVth International Symposium on Nasopharyngeal Carcinoma (NPC), dealing with the application of field and laboratory studies to the control of NPC, will be held at the University of Malaya, Kuala Lumpur, Malaysia from 27-29 September 1982. Specifically, the objectives are (1) to present and review data on NPC obtained since the IIIrd International Symposium held in 1980 in Dusseldorf, West Germany; and (2) to stimulate active communication and participation between otorhinolaryngologists, pathologists, clinicians and laboratory investigators, to explore areas of epidemiology, early diagnosis and proper management of NPC, including prevention.

'PLASTIC SURGERY OF THE NOSE: THE STATE OF THE ART'

SCHEDULED 6-11 NOVEMBER, 1982
(Florida, U.S.A.)

THE ADVANCED rhinoplasty course of the American Academy of Facial Plastic and Reconstructive Surgery, will be held, 6-11 November, 1982, at Innisbrook Resort, Tarpon Springs, Florida.

This bi-annual symposium on the art and science of rhinoplasty will focus on contemporary surgical techniques and long-term results, with special emphasis on problem areas and current controversies.

A renowned international faculty representing several related surgical disciplines will demonstrate and discuss the current state of the art of rhinoplasty and nasal reconstruction. Instruction includes surgical demonstrations, panel discussions and case study videotapes documenting surgery through long-term results.

The outstanding scientific program offered by the course will be complemented by a program of exciting social and recreational activities.

The faculty includes: Richard Webster, M.D., Boston; G. John Beekhuis, M.D., Detroit; Jack Anderson, M.D., New Orleans; Charles Krause, M.D., Ann Arbor; Robert Simons, M.D., Miami; Charles Gross, M.D., Memphis; Richard

Farrior, M.D., Tampa; James Endicott, M.D., Tampa; Gaylon McCollough, M.D., Birmingham; Tony Bull, M.D., London; Richard Goode, M.D., Palo Alto; George Brennan, M.D., Newport Beach; M. Eugene Tardy, Jr., M.D., Chicago.

The course will be directed by M. Eugene Tardy, Jr., M.D. and Charles Gross, M.D.
