Resolutions and Statements of the United Nations Security Council (1947–1989)

A Thematic Guide

edited by Karel C. Wellens, Professor of Public International Law and the Law of International Organizations, Catholic University of Nijmegen, The Netherlands

The activities of the Security Council of the U.N. reflect the status and the evolution of international relations on major issues. The resolutions adopted on these issues mirror the state of those often changing relations, and for the purpose of research it is necessary that these resolutions be collected in a topical order. At the same time this implies a geographical approach, but mere publication according to geographical and topical criteria gives no insight into the underlying issues.

In this thematic guide, Professor Wellens has combined all the requirements that a researcher is looking for: the texts, in chronological order according to the topical issues and geographical distribution, accompanied by a succinct summary of the most salient features of the facts leading to the submission of the case to the Council. This is a novel and most useful approach to a collection of documents reflecting nearly a half-century of international relations and disputes which States have had to settle mainly through the Security Council.
