For almost half a century, Parliamentary Affairs, a truly comparative journal, has highlighted topical issues in its own inimitable style. In 1994 it published the highly acclaimed Abortion and Morality issue - now reprinted and once again available for use as a key text. 1994 also produced a fascinating overview of British Government and Politics since 1945, in the special issue of Parliamentary Affairs, marking the 50th Anniversary of the Hansard Society.

1995 starts off in true Parliamentary Affairs style with a look at the Matrix Churchill Judicial Inquiry, plus other articles on the televising of Parliament, and on contemporary politics in Italy, France, Germany, and the European Parliament.

The April 1995 issue of Parliamentary Affairs considers The Quango Debate; articles include:

- Quangos and Democratic Government
Paul Hirst
- The 'Growth' of Quangos: Evidence and Explanations
Brian Hogwood
- Government Perspectives
Rt. Hon. David Hunt
- Accountability in the National Health Service
Philip Hunt
- The Impact of Quangos and New Government Agencies on Education
Helen Johnson and Kathryn Riley
- The Politics of Quangos
Tony Stott
- Quangos and the Skeletal State

BEING AND BECOMING CANADA

Edited by Charles F. Doran and Ellen Reisman Babby

"Being Canada means fighting for identity, an identity always in the process of becoming." — Charles F. Doran, Editor

This intellectually rich volume presents lively and thought-provoking dialogue on international and provincial, cross-border issues. The articles invite serious reflection and draw further attention to the changing Canadian landscape.

While readers may be familiar with some of the central issues facing Canada's unique bilateral relationships, for many this volume provides the first focused opportunity to examine key issues through the lenses of leading American and Canadian scholars.

Divided into three sections, the volume opens with discussion of the very existence of Canada as a single unified polity composed of two founding peoples. The middle section examines whether Canada is losing its European identity, gaining an Asian focus, or both. And it concludes with a section on continentalism, the pull of economic, political and cultural forces from the United States.

Contents: Thoughts on a Different Tomorrow / On Watching, From Across the Border, the Canadian Game of Chicken / There'll Always Be Canada and a Canadian Constitutional Crisis / Quebec and the Ideal of Federalism / Political Institutions and Conflict Management in Canada / Language, Identity, and the Nationalist Impulse: Quebec / Historical Traditions and the Inevitability of European Ties / Canada, Asia, and the Pacific Century / Trade Union Exceptionalism: the United States and Canada / Religion in Canada: A Historical Overview / Continental Union / From Pax Britannica to Pax Americana and Beyond / Canadian Cities and Their Immigrants: New identities / Entry and Exit: Canadian Immigration Policy in Context / The Fifth Force: Multiculturalism and the English Canadian Identity

Notes to Contributors / Avis aux collaborateurs

Authors are requested to forward four copies of their manuscripts together with four copies of an abstract of 100 words. Manuscripts should not be longer than 35 pages (all material included). All material must be double-spaced. Footnotes should be double-spaced and placed in a single listing at the end of the paper. Tables and diagrams must be submitted on separate pages. In preparing a manuscript for consideration by the Editorial Board, authors should follow the JOURNAL's style sheet which the editors can supply. Otherwise, the most recent issue of the JOURNAL can serve as a style guide. Manuscripts will not be returned. Authors may submit the final version on MS-DOS diskette in either DOS text format or WordPerfect, along with a hard copy of the file.

Les auteurs doivent faire parvenir en quatre exemplaires leurs manuscrits ainsi que leurs résumés de 100 mots. Les manuscrits ne doivent pas dépasser 35 pages dactylographiées à double interligne (y compris les notes, les références et les tableaux). Les références doivent aussi être présentées à double interligne dans un ordre consécutif à la fin du manuscrit. Les tableaux et les graphiques doivent être soumis sur des pages séparées. Avant de soumettre un manuscrit, les auteurs doivent s'assurer que le protocole de rédaction de la REVUE est respecté. Ce protocole peut leur être envoyé sur demande ou ils peuvent s'inspirer à cet égard du dernier numéro de la REVUE. Les manuscrits ne sont pas retournés aux auteurs. Les auteurs peuvent soumettre leur version finale sur une disque MS-DOS, en format DOS texte plein ou WordPerfect, ainsi qu'une copie du texte imprimé.

The Editorial Board considers manuscripts on an exclusive basis only; that is, a manuscript submitted for consideration must not have been previously published, nor be under consideration, nor accepted for publication, elsewhere. The Board may judge manuscripts unsuitable if they are too narrow or specialized for an omnibus political science journal.

Le comité de rédaction considère que les manuscrits lui sont soumis en exclusivité; c'est-à-dire qu'un manuscrit soumis ne doit pas avoir déjà été publié, soumis ou accepté pour publication dans une autre revue. Le comité peut considérer inadmissibles des manuscrits portant sur des sujets trop spécialisés ou trop étroits.

Correspondence in English concerning manuscripts should be directed to Professor Richard Vernon, Department of Political Science, University of Western Ontario, London, Ontario N6A 5C2.

On doit adresser toute communication en français au sujet des manuscrits au Professeur Guy Laforest, Département de science politique, Université Laval, Ste-Foy, Québec G1K 7P4.
