The Journal of African History

Editor

Cheikh A. Babou, University of Pennsylvania, USA

Andreas Eckert, Humboldt University Berlin, Germany

Lynn M. Thomas, University of Washington, Seattle, USA

Justin Willis, University of Durham, UK

The Journal of African History publishes articles and book reviews ranging widely over the African past, from the late Stone Age to the present. In recent years increasing prominence has been given to economic, cultural and social history and several articles have explored themes which are also of growing interest to historians of other regions such as: gender roles, demography, health and hygiene, propaganda, legal ideology, labour histories, nationalism and resistance, environmental history, the construction of ethnicity, slavery and the slave trade, and photographs as historical sources. Contributions dealing with pre-colonial historical relationships between Africa and the African diaspora are especially welcome, as are historical approaches to the post-colonial period.

To celebrate over 50 years of publishing, we invite you to read a collection of 50 papers selected by the editors, for free at: journals.cambridge.org/afh50

Modern Intellectual History

Editors

Charles Capper, Charles Capper

Duncan Kelly, University of Cambridge, UK

Anthony J. LaVopa, North Carolina State University, USA

Samuel Moyn, Columbia University, USA

This important journal serves as a focal point and forum for scholarship on intellectual and cultural history from the mid-seventeenth century to the present, with primary attention to Europe and the Americas and to transnational developments that encompass the non-West. MIH enquires into this era's intellectual discourses and texts, their contextual origins and reception, and the recovery of their historical meanings. The journal encompasses various forms of intellectual and cultural history, including political thought and culture, philosophy, religion, literature and literary criticism, social sciences, natural sciences, visual arts and aesthetic theory, communications, law, economic thought, social and cultural theory, psychology, anthropology, music and the history of the book.

Perspectives on Politics

Published for the American Political Science Association

Editor

Jeffrey C. Isaac, Indiana University, USA

Perspectives on Politics seeks to provide a space for broad and synthetic discussion within the political science profession and between the profession and the broader scholarly and reading publics. Such discussion necessarily draws on and contributes to the scholarship published in the more specialized journals that dominate our discipline. At the same time, Perspectives seeks to promote a complementary form of broad public discussion and synergistic understanding within the profession that is essential to advancing research and promoting scholarly community.

Perspectives seeks to nurture a political science public sphere, publicizing important scholarly topics, ideas, and innovations, linking scholarly authors and readers, and promoting broad reflexive discussion among political scientists about the work that we do and why this work matters.

Perspectives on Politics is sold ONLY as part of a joint subscription with American Political Science Review and S: Political Science & Politics.

Review of International Studies

Published for the British International Studies Association

Editor

Nick Rengger, University of St Andrews, UK

Review of International Studies serves the needs of scholars in international relations and related fields such as politics, history, law, and sociology. The Review publishes a significant number of high quality research articles, review articles which survey new contributions to the field, a forum section to accommodate debates and replies, and occasional interviews with leading scholars. The Review also published an annual special issue devoted to a special theme.

Studies in American Political Development

Editors

Daniel Carpenter, Harvard University, USA

Elisabeth Clemens, University of Chicago, USA

Scott James, University of California, Los Angeles, USA

Studies in American Political Development (SAPD) publishes scholarship on political change and institutional development in the United States from a variety of theoretical viewpoints. Articles focus on governmental institutions over time and on their social, economic and cultural setting. In-depth presentation in a longer format allows contributors to elaborate on the complex patterns of state-society relations. SAPD encourages an interdisciplinary approach and recognizes the value of comparative perspectives.

Editorial policy

Journal of American Studies publishes works by scholars from all over the world on American literature, history, institutions, politics, economics, film, popular culture, geography and related subjects.

A 'Notes and Comments' section provides a forum for shorter pieces and responses from readers to points made in articles or reviews.

1. Submissions

Papers should be submitted via the following website <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstud>. Authors who do not yet have an account on the online submission site will need to register before submitting a manuscript. If you are unsure about your login details or whether you have an account or not, please use the password help field on the login page. Do not create a new account if you are unsure.

If you experience any difficulties submitting your manuscript, please contact ScholarOne support at <http://mchelp.manuscriptcentral.com/gethelpnow/question.htm>

Any editorial correspondence should be addressed to: Professor Scott Lucas, W.S.Lucas@bham.ac.uk.

Submission of an article is taken to imply that it has not previously been published, and has not been submitted for publication elsewhere. Authors of articles published in the journal assign copyright to Cambridge University Press (with certain rights reserved) and will receive a copyright assignment form for signature on acceptance of your paper.

Contributors are responsible for obtaining permission to reproduce any material in which they do not own copyright, to be used in both print and electronic media, and for ensuring that the appropriate acknowledgements are included in their manuscript.

2. Manuscript preparation

Articles should not exceed 7,000 words.

Manuscripts should be submitted via the online submission system at <http://mc.manuscriptcentral.com/jamstud>. Authors should remove their name from the manuscript and should ensure that their manuscript is fully anonymised.

File names should be of the type `AMSauthor surname.doc` or `.rtf` for ease of identification.

Diagrams, maps, and illustrations should be made into an eps file or a tif file and the file name should be `AMSauthor surname 1.eps` or `.tif` (where the number is the figure number).

Contributors should keep one copy of the typescript for correcting proofs.

3. Text preparation

Spelling and punctuation may conform either to British or American usage, providing it is consistent throughout. In either case quotation should follow the style of the original.

Use -ize (as in organize), connection, enquiry, judgement, focussed, role; elite, regime (without accents), but communiqué.

Quotations: Long quotations (i.e., of 50 words or more) will be set apart in smaller type, without quotation marks. They should also be indicated on the typescript. Shorter quotations will be set in the text, with double quotations within quotations, use single inside double.

Punctuation: All commas and periods ending quotations should appear inside the quotation marks; other punctuation goes outside unless it is actually part of the matter quoted.

Ellipsis within a sentence should be indicated by three ... spaced periods. Ellipsis at the end of a sentence should be indicated by three spaced periods following the sentence period, i.e. four periods in all.

Indentation: The first line of articles and of sections within articles and of reviews should not be indented. All other paragraphs begin with indentation.

Dates: 13 January 1976 (but 13 Jan. in footnotes); March 1978; 1920s; 1965–68; 1904–08 (except in headings: 1771–1773); seventeenth century; always abbreviate months in footnotes.

This journal issue has been printed on FSC-certified paper and cover board. FSC is an independent, non-governmental, not-for-profit organization established to promote the responsible management of the world's forests. Please see www.fsc.org for information.

Figures: Spell one to ninety-nine in text, except e.g. 75 voted for, 39 against, and 15 abstained. Spell only one to nine in footnotes. 15 percent (but use % in footnotes).

Abbreviations: Mr., Dr., Jr., Sr. (as in Richard Henry Dana, Sr.); but USA, USSR, UN, NATO, ACLS, DAB, PMLA (without periods). Ibid., et al., etc., loc. cit. (Latin with periods).

Tables: Use space rather than vertical rules, unless the latter are absolutely essential sources and notes should appear immediately below each table.

Footnotes should be used sparingly: in general, to give sources of direct quotations, references to main authorities on disputable questions, and evidence relied on for a new or unusual conclusion. They should be numbered consecutively.

Capitalization: southern, northern, southerner, northerner, governor, President of the United States, South, North, Midwest.

Citations should wherever possible be to authoritative editions rather than to paperback reprints of no textual authority.

Books should be cited as follows, complete with publisher's name:

W.R. Brock, American Crisis: Congress and Reconstruction 1865–1867 (London: Macmillan, 1963), 274–83

H.C. Allen and C.P. Hill, eds., British Essays in American History (London: Edward Arnold, 1957)

Frances Anne Kemble, Journal of a Residence on a Georgia Plantation in 1838–1839, ed. John A. Scott (New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1961), 260ff.

John Livingstone Lowes, The Road to Xanadu: A Study in the Ways of the Imagination 2nd edn. (1930; rept. New York: Alfred A. Knopf, 1959), 61.

Helen T. Catterall, ed., Judicial Cases Concerning American Slavery and the Negro, 5 vols. (Washington, DC: US Govt. Printing Office, 1926–37), 1, 216–21, 247; 4, 16. 19.

John M. Hill, An Introduction to American Fiction, 2nd edn. rev. (Princeton: Princeton University Press, 1976), xi–xiii.

Subsequent citations should be indicated thus:

Immediately following: Ibid., 47.

Within the next ten footnotes: Hill, 271–78

When the work has not been cited, in any form, for more than ten footnotes: Hill, American Fiction, 394

Avoid op. cit.

Journals should be cited as follows:

Bernard Poli, "The Hero in France and America," Journal of American Studies, 2 (1968), 225–38

Avoid Roman numerals. Indicate volume numbers by italicising, thus: 64

Vol. No. Ch. Pt. all cap.

Page numbers: 152–55, 113–257, 1365–69

Abbreviations to be italic, e.g. Reviews in North America Literature, hereafter abbreviated to RNAL.

Weekly magazines

"Who controls the Democratic Party?" Time, 19 Sept. 1975, 19–24

Newspapers

Norman Mailer, "Reflections on James Baldwin's 'Apocalypse'", New York Times, 9 Oct. 1968, 23.

4. Proofs

Typographical or factual errors only may be changed at proof stage. The publisher reserves the right to charge authors for correction of non-typographical errors.

5. Offprints

Article authors will receive a PDF file of their work.
