Monthly Public Health Law Webinar Series

1-2 pm ET

Every month ASLME and its partners bring together experts in various public health fields to discuss timely and critical topics — including distracted driving, obesity prevention, gun violence and firearms law, health impact assessments, primary care provider roles, and many more. The webinars are free and open to all interested parties. Registration is required.

2017 Health Law Professors Conference

June 8-10, 2017

Georgia State University College of Law

Atlanta, GA

This conference is intended for professionals who teach law or bioethics in schools of law, medicine, public health, health care administration, pharmacy, nursing, and dentistry. ASLME's Annual Health Law Professors Conference combines presentations by experienced health law teachers with the opportunity for discussion among conference participants. The program is designed to provide participants with updates on issues at the forefront of law and medicine and to provide them with the opportunity to share strategies, ideas, and materials.
