

Comparative Studies in Society and History

Editor-in-Chief

Andrew Shryock, Anthropology, University of Michigan, USA

Comparative Studies in Society and History is an international forum for new research and interpretation concerning problems of recurrent patterning and change in human societies through time and the contemporary world. CSSH sets up a working alliance among specialists in all branches of the social sciences and humanities as a way of bringing together multidisciplinary research, cultural studies, and theory, especially in anthropology, history, political science, and sociology. Review articles and discussion bring readers in touch with current findings and issues.

Journal of Global History

Published for London School of Economics and Political Science

Chief Editor

William Gervase Clarence-Smith, SOAS, London, UK

Editors

Barbara Watson Andaya, University of Hawaii, USA

Merry Wiesner-Hanks, University of Wisconsin-Milwaukee, USA

Journal of Global History addresses the main problems of global change over time, together with the diverse histories of globalization. It also examines counter-currents to globalization, including those that have structured other spatial units. The journal seeks to transcend the dichotomy between 'the West and the rest', straddle traditional regional boundaries, relate material to cultural and political history, and overcome thematic fragmentation in historiography. The journal also acts as a forum for interdisciplinary conversations across a wide variety of social and natural sciences.
