A STATEMENT OF EDITORIAL POLICY

PMLA endeavors to represent the most distinguished contemporary scholarship and criticism in the modern languages and literatures. It welcomes either new or traditional approaches by either young or established scholars, providing only that whatever it publishes is well written and likely to be of permanent value. The distribution of papers in PMLA should reflect work of distinction actually being done from year to year, regardless of periods or languages. Members who feel their interests neglected by this policy are urged to write and to encourage others to write articles good enough to be published.

Since its audience is the total membership of the Association, PMLA is reluctant to publish minor articles or highly technical studies addressed to specialists in limited fields. Nor does it encourage brief notes or unduly long papers. PMLA does not review books. Articles should be written in a clear, concise, and attractive style, with documentation held to a necessary minimum.

Any member of the Association has the privilege of submitting papers for publication in PMLA. Each paper submitted will be read by at least one consultant with special competence in the field concerned and, if in any way recommended, it will also be read by at least one member of the Editorial Committee. Attempt is made to publish papers within nine months of acceptance. If a decision to accept or reject a paper seems unduly delayed, contributors are reminded that the consultant readers and the Editorial Committee are distinguished men and women who generously contribute their scant leisure to the advancement of scholarship in humane letters.

Manuscripts must be prepared in conformity with the MLA Style Sheet, published in the April 1951 PMLA and on sale as a pamphlet in the MLA offices. Authors are urged to read also the advice of R. B. McKerrow and H. M. Silver on scholarly publication, published in the April 1950 PMLA, and "The Publication of Academic Writing," by Oscar Cargill, William Charvat, and Donald D. Walsh, in the Sept. 1966 PMLA, both also on sale as pamphlets. Manuscripts should be addressed to the Editor of PMLA, 62 Fifth Avenue, New York, N. Y. 10011. Carbon copies are not needed, but should be made and retained by the author.
