The British Journal of Psychiatry is published monthly under the auspices of the Royal College of Psychiatrists. The BJP publishes original work in all fields of psychiatry. All communications, including manuscripts for publication, should be sent to The Editor, British Journal of Psychiatry, 17 Belgrave Square, London SW1X 8PG.

Full instructions to authors are given at the beginning of the January issue.

Two copies of the manuscript should be submitted and the author should retain a copy. Articles must be typed on one side of the paper only, double spaced with wide margins.

Contributions are accepted for publication on the condition that their substance has not been published or submitted for publication elsewhere. The BJP does not hold itself responsible for statements made by contributors. Unless so stated, material in the BJP does not necessarily reflect the views of the Editor or the Royal College of Psychiatrists.

Published articles become the property of the BJP and can be published elsewhere, in full or in part, only with the Editor's written permission.

Down with Gloom!

or How to Defeat Depression

By Professor Brice Pitt. Drawings by Mel Calman

The Royal College of Psychiatrists, in association with The Royal College of General Practitioners, has launched the Defeat Depression Campaign, aimed at improving the recognition and treatment of depressive illness. This lively book promotes accurate information about depression in a helpful and amusing way.

Features

- Explains what depression is, why it occurs and how it can be treated.
- Approaches the subject in a non-technical, lively and informative manner.
- Mel Calman's cartoons provide an amusing backdrop to the text.
