Special Issue of the Canadian Journal on Aging on Supporting Community Support Services

The Canadian Journal on Aging invites submissions for a special issue on the topic of "Supporting Community Support Services," to be published in late 1998/early 1999. The special issue will be edited by Dr. Sheila Ney-smith of the Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto.

Among the many determinants of health are social support networks and health and social services; community support services fall under this category. The objective of this Special issue is to examine current policy and practice trends as they relate to the capacity of community support services to support healthy aging. The catalyst for this Special issue was a recommendation of the National Forum on Health to include long-term care within the policy framework of the Canada Health Act; this recommendation has been implemented in the recent establishment of the Health Transitions Fund. Submissions should assess recent programmatic approaches to community support services in terms of their impact on three groups of actors: elderly persons; workers who provide community-based services; and family members. Issues of intersectoral collaboration at national, provincial and local levels should be emphasized where possible. Submissions from other countries are welcome.

Please send manuscripts no later than March 1, 1998 to the Editor-in Chief:

Appel de communications

Numéro spécial de La Revue canadienne du vieillissement sur l'appui des services communautaires de soutien

La Revue canadienne du vieillissement invite la production des textes qu'elle réunira dans un numéro spécial intitulé "À l'appui des services communautaires de soutien" qui sera publié fin 1998 ou début 1999. Dr Sheila Neysmith de la faculté de Travail social de l'Université de Toronto sera rédactrice de ce numéro spécial.

Les nombreux constituants de la santé comprennent notamment les réseaux de soutien social et les services de santé ainsi que les services sociaux. Les services communautaires de soutien s'insèrent dans cette dernière catégorie. Le numéro spécial de La Revue vise à examiner la politique et les pratiques actuelles en ce qui a trait à la capacité d'appui des aînés émanant des services communautaires de soutien. La recommandation du Forum national sur la santé d'inclure les soins à long terme dans le cadre de la Loi canadienne sur la santé a donné lieu à la décision de publier ce numéro spécial. La recommandation a d'ailleurs été intégrée au Fonds pour l'adaptation des services de santé récemment établi. Les textes soumis doivent témoigner des approches pragmatiques récentes en matière de services communautaires de soutien et en examiner les effets sur trois groupes: les aînés, les travailleurs qui fournissent des services communautaires et les membres de la famille. Dans la mesure du possible, il faudra traiter des aspects de la collaboration entre les échelons nationaux, provinciaux et régionaux. Les textes provenant de l'extérieur du pays sont les bienvenus.

Veillez soumettre vos textes avant le 1er mars 1998 à la rédactrice en chef:

A Call for Nominations

The Canadian Journal on Aging is seeking nominations for two positions on the Editorial Board:

For the position of Section Editor for the new Educational Gerontology Section, to be filled by May 1, 1998;

For the position of Section Editor for the Social Policy and Practice Section. The current Section Editor, Dr. Sheila Neysmith of the University of Toronto will complete her term of office in October, 1998.

According to the Terms of Reference of the Canadian Journal on Aging, as established by the Canadian Association on Gerontology, a Section Editor is expected to be a recognized authority in their respective specialty. Working collaboratively with the Editor-in-Chief, the Section Editor is responsible for obtaining scientific review for each manuscript from at least two reviewers; working in conjunction with the author(s) regarding any revision needed to the manuscript; making the final decision, based on the scientific reviews, to recommend to the Editor-in-Chief whether or not a manuscript shall be accepted for publication. Section Editors must be able to process manuscripts submitted in both English and French. A modest fee is provided for coverage of expenses related to the processing of manuscripts. A Section Editor is a member of the Editorial Board of the Canadian Journal on Aging, and is expected to participate in the annual meeting of the Editorial Board, held in conjunction with the CAG Annual Scientific and Educational Meeting. Appointment to the Editorial Board is normally for a four-year term. Section Editors may not be members of the Board of Directors of the CAG.

Nominations, along with a curriculum vitae and statement of interest in either of these positions should be sent, no later than March 1, 1998, to the Editor-in Chief:

Anne Martin-Matthews, Ph.D.
Director, School of Family & Nutritional Sciences
The University of British Columbia
2205 The East Mall

Appel de candidatures

La Revue canadienne du vieillissement recherche deux candidat(e)s pour combler des postes au sein du comité de réaction:

un rédacteur/une rédactrice à la nouvelle section de Gériologie éducative; poste à combler au 1er mai 1998;

un rédacteur/une rédactrice à la section des Politiques et pratiques sociales dont le mandat de la responsable actuelle, Dr Sheila Neysmith de l'Université de Toronto, prendra fin en octobre 1998.

En vertu du mandat de La Revue canadienne du vieillissement défini par l'Association canadienne de gérontologie, le rédacteur/la rédactrice de section doit être une autorité reconnue dans sa sphère de compétence. Travaillant en collaboration avec la rédactrice en chef, le rédacteur/la rédactrice de section est chargé(e) de présenter les manuscrits à au moins deux membres du comité de lecture; il/elle doit voir, avec les auteur(e)s, les changements à apporter aux textes et prendre une décision finale à la suite de l'examen du manuscrit quant à la recommandation de publier ou non qu'il/elle communiquera à la rédactrice en chef. Les rédacteurs/rédactrices de section doivent être en mesure d'examiner les manuscrits soumis en français et en anglais. Les activités d'examen de manuscrits sont légèrement rétribuées. Le rédacteur/la rédactrice de section est membre du comité de rédaction de La Revue canadienne du vieillissement et devrait assister à son assemblée annuelle qui a lieu en même temps que la réunion scientifique et éducative annuelle de l'Association canadienne de gérontologie. Les nominations au comité de rédaction couvrent normalement une période de quatre ans. Les rédacteurs/rédactrices de section ne peuvent être membres du conseil de direction de l'Association canadienne de gérontologie.

Les candidatures, accompagnées d'un curriculum vitae et d'une déclaration d'intérêt, doivent être parvenus à la rédactrice en chef avant le 1er mars 1998:

Journal of GERONTOLOGICAL SOCIAL WORK

Editor:

Rose Dobrof, DSW

Brookdale Professor of Gerontology, Hunter College,
City University of New York

"Designed to speak to the professional interest of social workers who serve older people; it does so with the quiet and judicious tone of careful research and balanced scrutiny. . . There is always a need in any field for quality, and it is nowhere more evident than in this journal's selection procedure, Editorial Board, and the resulting published papers."

New Magazine Review

"For those desirous of keeping abreast of ever-growing social work knowledge—theories, practice strategies, and approaches relevant for work with elders—the Journal of Gerontological Social Work has a great deal to offer."

Adult Residential Care Journal

Devoted entirely to social work practice, theory, administration, and consultation in the field of aging, the Journal of Gerontological Social Work is geared toward the practice needs of social work administrators, practitioners, consultants, and supervisors in long-term care facilities, acute treatment and psychiatric hospitals, mental health centers, family service agencies, community and senior citizen centers, and public health and welfare agencies. After a decade of publication, this peer-reviewed journal continues to present fresh and relevant material covering such issues as casework and groupwork, policy and planning, law and social work, community health care, and much more.

Norman and Honey Schipper Chair in Gerontological Social Work at Baycrest Centre and the University of Toronto, Faculty of Social Work

The Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto, in conjunction with the Ben and Hilda Katz Centre for Gerontological Social Work, is seeking applicants for the Norman and Honey Schipper Chair in Gerontological Social Work. Candidates will be expected to build and direct an internationally recognized research and educational program in practice and policy issues related to social work services for the elderly and their families at the Katz Centre for Gerontological Social Work, located at Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care. The successful candidate will be appointed at the associate or full professor level in a tenure position at the University of Toronto. The Faculty of Social Work is committed to enhancing the diversity of its faculty complement.

Qualifications: A doctorate in social work or a field compatible with social work; clinical social work experience with the elderly an asset; an active research program in gerontological studies related to social work practice and policy; international reputation with demonstrated ability to attract external research funding; and an excellent publication record in high quality peer reviewed journals.

The recently endowed Katz Centre for Gerontological Social Work is a joint program of the Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto and the Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care. Its mission is to strengthen the contribution of social work to the field of aging by focusing on individual and family issues experienced by older people. Additional information about the position, the University of Toronto, the Faculty of Social Work, and Baycrest Centre for Geriatric Care is available at <http://www.utoronto.ca/facsocwk> or by calling 416-978-3255.

Applicants are invited to submit by March 10, 1998 a curriculum vitae, three letters of reference, and a letter outlining their research, teaching and professional expertise in these areas. Applications should be sent to Dr. Wes Shera, Dean, Faculty of Social Work, University of Toronto, 246 Bloor Street W., Toronto, Ontario M5S 1A1.

In accordance with the Employment Equity Policy, the University of Toronto encourages applications from qualified women and men, members of visible minorities, aboriginal peoples, and persons with disabilities. This is an international search but in accordance with Canadian immigration requirements, priority will be given to Canadian Citizens and permanent residents of Canada.

LA REVUE CANADIENNE DU VIEILLISSEMENT

Renseignements généraux et protocole de présentation (Révision de juillet 1997)

La Revue canadienne du vieillissement est une publication trimestrielle de l'Association canadienne de gérontologie, dotée d'un comité de lecture. Elle publie des articles qui portent sur le vieillissement dans les disciplines suivantes: biologie, politique et pratique sociales, psychologie, sciences de la santé et sciences sociales. La Revue accepte les comptes rendus de recherches originales ainsi que les textes conceptuels ou théoriques qui font avancer de façon appréciable les connaissances ou la vision de la gérontologie. Bien qu'elle soit une revue canadienne, les auteurs d'autres pays sont encouragés à y soumettre leur travaux de recherche. On demande aux auteurs de tenir compte de la multidisciplinarité du lectorat. Il peut s'avérer particulièrement approprié de relier certains aspects de l'analyse à d'autres domaines de savoir.

1. Présentation et acceptation des manuscrits

Les manuscrits doivent être adressés à la Rédactrice en chef: Anne Martin-Matthews, Director, School of Family & Nutritional Sciences, The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4.

La revue n'accepte que des manuscrits inédits qui n'ont pas été soumis à une autre revue. Les manuscrits acceptés par la RCV ne peuvent être publiés ailleurs sans autorisation (exception faites des actes de congrès).

2. Préparation des manuscrits

a. Préparation des manuscrits. On recommande l'utilisation de logiciels compatibles avec IBM. Les versions finales doivent nous parvenir en Word Perfect, à double interligne. Les articles doivent compter 3,000 à 10,000 mots que l'on soumettra en cinq (5) exemplaires. Les auteurs sont priés de numéroter toutes les pages consécutivement, y compris la page de titre. Les manuscrits doivent être accompagnés d'un titre résumé qui servira dans l'en-tête contenant un maximum de 40 lettres et espaces, et six (6) mots clés pour le classement analytique.

d. Résumé. Les auteurs sont priés de fournir, sur une feuille séparée, un résumé de 100 à 150 mots. Il devra être accompagné d'une traduction anglaise, sinon les frais de traduction seront assumés par l'auteur (35 $).

e. Remerciements. Les remerciements doivent figurer sur une feuille séparée. Ils seront insérés en guise de préliminaire à la première page du texte imprimé.

f. Notes. Les notes doivent figurer à la fin du texte, immédiatement avant la bibliographie. Nous ne pouvons accepter les notes en bas de page.

g. Références. Les références doivent être conforme au protocole de l'American Psychological Association (1984) ou au protocole de Vancouver. Pour obtenir de plus amples renseignements sur ce point consulter la rédaction.

h. Tableaux. Les tableaux doivent être présentés sur des feuilles séparés.

i. Figures. Les illustrations doivent être prêtes à photographier et soumises en même temps que la version finale du texte. Format max.: 28 picas/ 4 po 5/8 lar. sur 43 picas/ 7 po ¼ haut.

3. Disquette. Une fois le texte accepté, l'auteur doit en fournir un exemplaire sur disquette de format IBM en Word Perfect.

4. Modifications de l'auteur. Les corrections effectuées par l'auteur à la lecture d'épreuve seront portées à son compte.

5. Droits d'auteur. Les auteurs dont les articles ou les résumés sont publiés doivent céder, à certaines conditions, leurs droits d'auteur à La Revue canadienne du vieillissement.

6. Formulation sexiste. Les auteurs doivent éviter l'emploi de tournures sexistes. Pour plus de renseignements, prière de consulter les directives de l'APA.

CANADIAN JOURNAL ON AGING

General Information and Instructions to Authors (Revised May, 1997)

The Canadian Journal on Aging is a refereed, quarterly publication of the Canadian Association on Gerontology. It publishes manuscripts on aging concerned with biology, health sciences, psychology, social sciences, and social policy and practice. The Journal welcomes articles reporting original research, as well as conceptual and theoretical papers which significantly advance knowledge or understanding in gerontology. Although focussed on Canadian research, manuscripts from authors outside Canada are welcome. Authors are asked to bear in mind the multi-disciplinary nature of the readership when writing their manuscripts. In particular, care should be taken to draw out the implications of the analysis for readers in other fields and other disciplines.

1. Submission and acceptance of manuscripts

All manuscripts should be addressed to the Editor-in-Chief: Anne Martin-Matthews, Director, School of Family & Nutritional Sciences, The University of British Columbia, Vancouver, BC V6T 1Z4

Submission of a paper to the CJA implies that it has not been published, nor is it under consideration by another journal; and if accepted by the CJA it is not to be published elsewhere (except as a conference proceedings) without permission.

2. Manuscript preparation

a. Preparing the manuscript. It is recommended that IBM-compatible software be used; authors must supply their final version in Word Perfect. Articles should be printed double spaced. Articles should generally contain between 3,000 and 10,000 words. Number pages consecutively, beginning with the title page and including all pages. Five (5) copies must be submitted. A condensed title for a running head, not to exceed 40 letters and spaces should be supplied, and up to six (6) key words for abstracting purposes.

b. Title page. Two of the copies must include a title page containing name of author, highest degree awarded, name and address of institutional affiliation, e-mail, FAX and telephone numbers.

c. Author anonymity. Three of the submitted copies must include a blinded title page, with title only.

d. Abstract. Each author is required to furnish, on a separate sheet, an abstract of not more than 100–150 words. A French translation of the abstract is necessary. The author may provide this or accept the expense of the translation of the abstract ($35.00).

e. Acknowledgements. These should be added on a separate page and will be incorporated in a preliminary note on the first printed page of the article.

f. Notes. All notes should be entered as endnotes and should appear immediately before the References. Footnotes are not acceptable.

g. References. The articles submitted should be written in either the American Psychological Association (1984) style or the Vancouver style of referencing. More information regarding this may be obtained by writing to the Editorial office.

h. Tables. Tables should be printed on separate sheets and position in paper clearly indicated.

i. Figures. Camera ready figures should be submitted with the final version of the paper in the following size: 28 picas/4 5/8 in. wide max. 43 picas/7 1/4 in. depth.

3. Diskettes. Once a paper is accepted the author must supply a copy of the paper on diskette in Word Perfect (IBM) format.

4. Authors' alterations. Alterations to page proofs will be charged to the author.

5. Copyright. Authors of articles or reviews accepted for publication will be asked to assign copyright, on certain conditions, to the Canadian Journal on Aging.

6. Sexist language. Authors should avoid using sexist language in their manuscripts. For further clarification, please refer to the APA guidelines.
