NEW FROM CARNEGIE ENDOWMENT

THE THIRD FORCE

The Rise of Transnational
Civil Society

Ann M. Florini,
editor

"Provides an excellent overview to the issues and trends in the rise of transnational civil society. Policy makers, students, and academics will appreciate the lively prose, diverse and well-documented case studies, lucid conclusions, and useful annotated bibliography."

—Kathryn Sikkink
University of Minnesota

From the landmines campaign to the Seattle protests against the WTO to the World Commission on Dams, transnational networks of civil society groups are seizing an ever-greater voice in how governments run countries and how corporations do business. This volume brings together a multinational group of authors to help policy makers, scholars, business people, and activists themselves understand the profound issues raised.

FUNDING VIRTUE

Civil Society Aid and Democracy Promotion

Marina Ottaway and Thomas Carothers, editors

"A collection that is filled with valuable information and penetrating insights. . . . Ottaway and Carothers give an important overview of assistance for civil society and efforts to promote democracy."

—Aryeh Neier,
President
Open Society Institute

In recent years, the United States and other international donors have embraced civil society aid as a key tool of democracy promotion, supporting thousands of NGOs around the world in the name of civil society development. Funding Virtue critically examines this burgeoning field.

The broad geographic reach, practical focus, and analytic rigor make this book an invaluable guide to this vital new area of international affairs.
