a non-profit, non-commercial cooperative to sustain and expand the radical community in the United States and abroad.

We are now arranging tours, one-night stands, radical theatre festivals, lectures, film programs, and conferences for the participating groups.

A monthly newspaper devoted primarily to discussion, mutual criticism, development of theoretical radical political aesthetics, and factual news will be published by the group shortly.

A brochure giving detailed information about each group and its current offerings will be mailed on written or telephoned request. Engagements are now being accepted for the summer months and the coming fall.
