

TALKING UNION

JUDITH STEPAN-NORRIS
AND MAURICE ZEITLIN

"Today's union men and women can learn a lot from the experiences and insights of these rank and file organizers and leaders of American labor in an earlier era. . . . Listening closely to what they have to say in Talking Union could help labor find its way again." — Victor G. Reuther, Assistant to the President, United Auto Workers, Retired

TALKING UNION

JUDITH STEPAN-NORRIS AND MAURICE ZEITLIN

The United Auto Workers' Ford Local No. 600 was not only the biggest local union in the world, it was also one of the most militant, radical, yet democratic unions in the United States. Talking Union gives us the exceptional opportunity to hear members of this local tell about their activism as they experienced it.
