SPECIAL ANNOUNCEMENT

THE LATIN AMERICAN STUDIES ASSOCIATION (LASA) OFFICIALLY CAME INTO EXISTENCE on May 7, 1966 at a meeting held in Washington, D.C. which was attended by more than seventy Latin American scholars and representatives of institutions with major commitments in Latin American research.

In the two-day meeting, hosted by the Hispanic Foundation and sponsored by the Joint Council of the SSRC-ACLS, the articles of Constitution were discussed and ratified and the board of directors was elected.

LASA was incorporated officially on May 12, 1966.

A subsequent meeting of the newly elected Executive Council ratified the By-Laws.

The elected officers of the new association are:

Kalman Silvert, President, Dartmouth University
Richard N. Adams, Vice President, University of Texas
Stanton Catlin, Yale University
Howard F. Cline, Hispanic Foundation
John E. Englekirk, University of California, Los Angeles
Federico Gil, University of North Carolina
Kenneth L. Karst, University of California, Los Angeles
William P. McGreevey, University of California, Berkeley
Kempton Webb, Columbia University

In the October issue of the LARR the Constitution and By-Laws will be published together with other details on the structure of the new organization.

BOLETIN INFORMATIVO SOBRE ESTUDIOS LATINOAMERICANOS EN EUROPA

La iniciativa para la publicación de este boletín fue tomada en la conferencia "Europa-América Latina" que tuvo lugar en Bellagio (Italia) del 4 al 9 de octubre de 1964, durante la cual el recién establecido "Centro de Estudios y Documentación Latinoamericanos de la Universidad de Amsterdam" aceptó la invitación de actuar como "clearing house" para los centros e institutos europesos dedicados a los estudios latinoamericanos en el campo de las ciencias sociales en el sentido más amplio de este término y publicar un boletín semi-anual con información sobre investigaciones en progreso, datos sobre programas de estudios latinoamericanos en Europa, así como noticias sobre intercambios de profesores y estudiantes entre la América Latina y Europa.

El primer número del Boletín Informativo fue publicado en el mes de abril de 1965 y ha tenido muy favorable acogida. El segundo número fue publicado a fines del mes de noviembre. Los primeros números serán gratis.

El boletín es publicado en idioma castellano y distribuido en América Latina, América del Norte y en Europa para servir como una fuente de actualidades que dará valiosas informaciones a las personas e institutos interesados sobre las actividades en Europa con respecto a los estudios latinoamericanos.
