

A History of Christian Thought, Volume III

From the Protestant Reformation to the Twentieth Century
by Justo L. González

In his third and final volume of A History of Christian Thought, the author covers a wide scope of events ranging from the eve of the Reformation to the twentieth century! An associate professor of theology at Emory University, Dr. González is well qualified to discuss changing philosophies and new awakenings in personal piety, among other topics.

$13.95

Three-volume set, $27.95

Handbook of Denominations in the United States

by Frank S. Mead

Here is the new, updated sixth edition of Frank Mead's popular easy-to-use sourcebook. It contains the latest information on over 250 religious bodies in the United States. This highly valued handbook is an instant source of information on church histories and statistics.

$5.95

Yearbook of American and Canadian Churches, 1975
edited by Constant H. Jacquet, Jr.

An indispensable reference book that offers a wide variety of information on the major faiths and their related organizations. Ideal for ministers, researchers, editors, and libraries, it includes a comprehensive calendar of religious observances through 1978, a directory of organizations having ecumenical connections, and a complete statistical and historical section.

$9.95, paper

Abingdon
at your local bookstore

Westminster Books on contemporary themes

DEATH: The Riddle and the Mystery by EBERHARD JUNGEL. Translated by IAIN and UTE NICOL. How theology must deal with the findings of medicine, sociology, and philosophy when it considers death. $6.95

A SECOND COLLECTION

by BERNARD J.F. LONERGAN, S.J. Edited by WILLIAM F.J. RYAN, S.J. and BERNARD J. TYRRELL, S.J. Nineteen recent writings of one of the greatest present-day Catholic thinkers, author of Philosophy of God, and Theology. $12

THEOLOGY IN RED, WHITE, AND BLACK

by BENJAMIN A. REIST. "An important book... theological pluralism on racial and ethnic terms is taken seriously."—Charles Shelby Rooks. Gives special attention to contributions of the American Indian. $7.50

A READER IN POLITICAL THEOLOGY:

Edited by ALAISTAIR KEE. Twenty-four contributions, from leading spokesmen, on what may be the theological emphasis of the later twentieth century. Paper $2.95

CHRISTIANITY ACCORDING TO JOHN

by D. GEORGE VANDERLIP. An analysis of the living themes of the Fourth Gospel, for an age in search of faith and international good will. Indexed to Scripture passages. $8.50

FREEDOM AND AUTHORITY

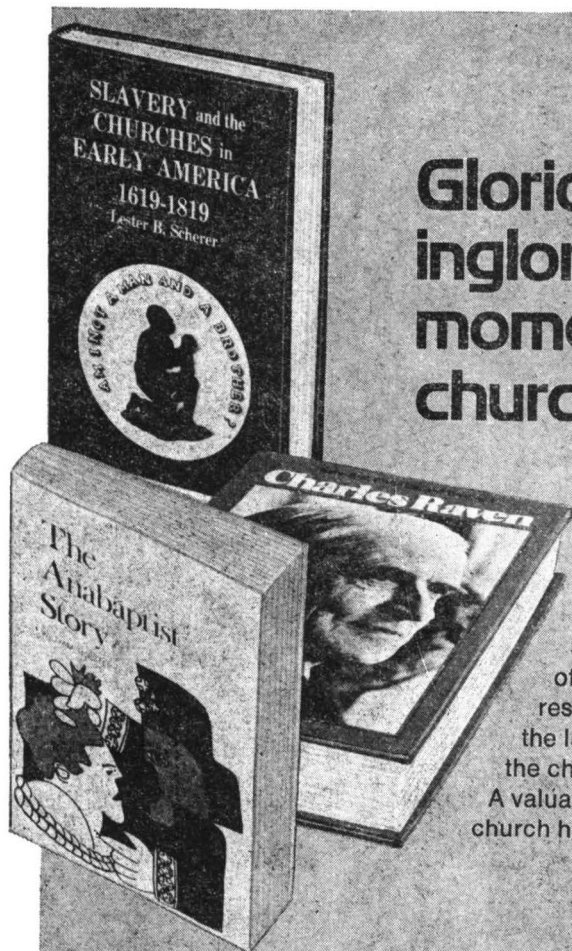

A Study of English Thought in the Early Seventeenth Century by GERALD R. CRAGG. The colorful events and personalities that combined to introduce new ideas on freedom and authority to the Western world.

$12.50 (tentative price)

Now at your bookstore

THE WESTMINSTER PRESS
292 Witherspoon Bldg., Philadelphia, Pa. 19107

Glorious and inglorious moments in church history

SLAVERY AND THE CHURCHES IN EARLY AMERICA—1619-1819

by Lester B. Scherer

Scherer examines the record of American Christianity with respect to slavery, documenting the largely passive role taken by the church between 1619 and 1819. A valuable contribution to the study of church history and American history.

208 pages, Cloth $6.95

CHARLES RAVEN: Naturalist, Historian, and Theologian

by F. W. Dillistone

A biography of Charles Raven—an opinionated, controversial Anglican writer and scholar—who was, according to the author, “never far from the place where the most important issues about the relation of Christianity to the 20th century world were being hammered out.”

512 pages, Cloth, $12.95

THE ANABAPTIST STORY

by William R. Estep

This revised edition covers an important chapter in Reformation history—the origin, growth, theology, and impact on contemporary Christianity of the Anabaptist movement. “Estep tells about one of the most glorious periods of Christian witness and martyrdom . . . authoritatively and movingly.”

—Franklin H. Littell

256 pages, Paper, $3.95

358
WM. B. EERDMANS PUBLISHING CO.
255 JEFFERSON AVE. S.E., GRAND RAPIDS, MICH. 49502