Women and the Party in Revolutionary China

Delia Davin

Xiang Jingyu, one of the leading theorists of the early Chinese Communist Party, envisaged an alliance of revolutionary women intellectuals and labouring women to fight for their own liberation and for that of all oppressed people. This book traces the history of that alliance, describing Party policy toward women up to the Civil War and the development of the Women's Federation since then. £5.95

The End and the Beginning

Pakistan 1969-1971

Herbert Feldman

The period covered by this book – from March 1969 when General Yahya Khan became President, to December 1971, when East Bengal broke away to become Bangladesh and Mr. Bhutto emerged as President of the new Pakistan – was the most crucial in Pakistan's history. This is the third volume in Mr. Feldman's chronicle of contemporary Pakistan. £4.50

Japan: An Economic Survey 1953-1973

Andrea Boltho

This book describes and discusses Japan's exceptional economic growth from 1953 to 1973. The author analyses this growth record, compares it to the performance of other major countries, and examines the factors which contributed to it. In conclusion he looks at the problems Japan is now facing and the changes that are likely to occur in the future. £5 paper covers £2.75

Migrants of the Mountains

The Cultural Ecology of the Blue Miao of Thailand

The Miao are the most numerous of the hill tribes of Northern Thailand. Because of their migratory habits which do not respect political boundaries and their involvement with opium growing, they have been branded as 'insurgents' by the governments of Thailand and Laos. This authoritative, wide-ranging study will be welcomed by all students of South-East Asia Illustrated £8.50

Critical Choices for Americans

Critical Choices for Americans, a fourteen-volume work on urgent problems that face the United States and the world at the beginning of America's third century, will appear through 1976 and into 1977 under the imprint of Lexington Books.

A wide range of subjects is covered including: energy, the environment, and economics; population, food, and land use; raw materials; criminal justice and the law; education; and foreign relations and national defense. A major portion of the work concerns ideas about America, extensive analyses of different regions of the world, and the quality of life of communities and individuals.

"The Commission on Critical Choices for Americans, brought together by Nelson A. Rockefeller in 1973, commissioned 128 of the best minds in the world to highlight alternatives facing America. Their subjects include energy, the environment, population, food, land use, criminal justice, education, defense, and extensive analyses of regions of the world."

About the series in general, TIME Magazine said:

"NEW STARTS FOR AMERICA'S THIRD CENTURY . . . What emerges from these essays is the sense that in nearly every important field, ideas that dominated for half a century or more are giving way. New notions are being pursued and older ideas, discarded earlier in the 20th century, are being re-examined . . . Different though the various views of human nature may be, the very use of the term implies that there is something permanent and irreducible in man and that his resistance to outside manipulation is a kind of triumph."

The books are:

- Volume I Vital Resources. 288pp. $14.95
- Volume II The Americans: 1976. 400pp. $15.95

NEW BOOKS

CHINA, THE STRUGGLE FOR POWER, 1917-1972

Richard C. Thornton

The outpouring of materials from Chinese Communist, Russian, Chinese Nationalist, and American sources in recent years has greatly enlarged our knowledge of Chinese politics. Using these new materials, Thornton presents a detailed account of the internecine struggle for power within the Chinese Communist party from its origins in 1917 through to 1972.

A MODERN CHINA AND A NEW WORLD

K'ang Yu-wei, Reformer and Utopian, 1858-1927

Kung-chuan Hsiao

This perceptive and thorough examination of a China in transition at the beginning of the twentieth century concentrates on K'ang Yu-wei, one of the last of the grand philosophers. K'ang's theories grew out of a wide study of human institutions. He delineated a future world in which all men would live in total harmony, a world in which there would be a full development of technology, democracy, and socialism for the greatest good.

KOREAN POLITICS IN TRANSITION

Edward Reynolds Wright, Editor

This comprehensive survey provides a sound introduction to contemporary South Korean politics. The contributors, all specialists in various aspects of Korean society, lay the groundwork for understanding the development of South Korea from 1948 to the present. Organized in five parts, the book describes the background, structure, individuals, and policies that have led to the development of the modern Korean state. While each chapter can be read as a separate entity, together they provide a balanced picture that will not become dated by subsequent political events.
