Annual dues for membership in the Association, which includes subscription to PMLA, are $10 except for the following special categories: a) student membership at $5, open for a maximum of three years to those who are engaged primarily in a course of study leading to a degree and who do not hold full-time teaching appointments; b) joint husband-and-wife membership at $15 with only one subscription to PMLA; c) foreign membership at $7, open to resident citizens of countries other than the United States and Canada.

The subscription price of PMLA for libraries and other institutions is $12 in the United States and Canada and $10 in other countries. Agents deduct $1 of these sums as their fee; institutions which subscribe directly may retain the same amount and remit $11 or $9. Single numbers and all supplements save the May Bibliography issue may be obtained for $3 each; the May Bibliography issue for $4. Claims for undelivered issues will be honored if they are received within one year of the publication date; thereafter the single issue price will be charged.

For information about the availability of back issues, inquire of the MLA Treasurer, 4 Washington Place, New York, N. Y. 10003. Early and current volumes may be obtained on microfilm from University Microfilms, 313 N 1st St., Ann Arbor, Mich. Purchase of current volumes on film is restricted to subscribers of the journal.

A STATEMENT OF EDITORIAL POLICY

PMLA endeavors to represent the most distinguished contemporary scholarship and criticism in the modern languages and literatures. It welcomes both new and traditional approaches by either young or established scholars, providing only that whatever it publishes is excellent and likely to be of permanent value. The distribution of papers in PMLA should reflect work of distinction actually being done from year to year, regardless of periods or languages. Members who feel their interests neglected by this policy can always alter the situation by writing, or by encouraging others to write, articles good enough to be published.

The audience for PMLA is the total membership of the Association. Hence, it is reluctant to publish minor articles or highly technical studies addressed to specialists in limited fields. Nor does it encourage brief notes or unduly long papers. PMLA does not review books. Articles should be written in a clear, concise, and attractive style. Documentation should be held to a necessary minimum.

Every member of the Association has the privilege of submitting papers for publication in PMLA. Each paper submitted will be read by at least one consultant with special competence in the field concerned. Papers in any way recommended will also be read by at least one member of the Editorial Committee. Attempt is made to publish papers within nine months of acceptance. If a decision to accept or reject a paper seems unduly delayed, contributors are reminded that the services of consultant readers and the Editorial Committee are the unpaid labors of distinguished men and women who generously contribute their scant leisure to the advancement of scholarship in humane letters.

Manuscripts must be prepared in conformity with the MLA Style Sheet, published in the April 1951 PMLA and on sale as a pamphlet in the MLA offices. Authors are urged to read also the advice of R. B. McKerrow and H. M. Silver on scholarly publication, published in the April 1950 PMLA, and also on sale as a pamphlet. Manuscripts should be addressed to the Editor of PMLA, 4 Washington Place, New York, N. Y. 10003. Carbon copies are not needed, but should be made and retained by the author.
